Sing, Memory: The Remarkable Story of the Man Who Saved the Music of the Nazi Camps Makana Eyre, 2023-05-23 A Polish musician a Jewish conductor a secret choir and the rescue of a trove of music from the Sachsenhausen concentration camp On a cold October night in 1942 SS guards at the Sachsenhausen concentration camp violently disbanded a rehearsal of a secret Jewish choir led by conductor Rosebery d Arguto Many in the group did not live to see morning and those who survived the guards reprisal were deported to Auschwitz Birkenau just a few weeks later Only one of its members survived the Holocaust Yet their story survives thanks to Aleksander Kulisiewicz An amateur musician he was not Jewish but struck up an unlikely friendship with d Arguto in Sachsenhausen D Arguto tasked him with a mission to save the musical heritage of the victims of the Nazi camps In Sing Memory Makana Eyre recounts Kulisiewicz s extraordinary transformation from a Polish nationalist into a guardian of music and culture from the Nazi camps Aided by an eidetic memory Kulisiewicz was able to preserve for posterity not only his own songs about life at the camp but the music and poetry of prisoners from a range of national and cultural backgrounds They composed symphonies organized clandestine choirs arranged great pieces of music by illustrious composers and gathered regularly over the course of the war to perform for one another For many music enabled them to resist bear witness and maintain their humanity in some of the most brutal conditions imaginable After the war Kulisiewicz returned to Poland and assembled an archive of camp music which he went on to perform in more than a dozen countries He dedicated the remainder of his life to the memory of the Nazi camps Drawing on oral history and testimony as well as extensive archival research Eyre tells this rich and affecting human story of musical resistance to the Nazi regime in full for the first time

Disciplining the State Patricia A. Thornton,2020-03-23 What are states and how are they made Scholars of European history assert that war makes states just as states make war This study finds that in China the challenges of governing produced a trajectory of state building in which the processes of moral regulation and social control were at least as central to state making as the exercise of coercive power State making is in China as elsewhere a profoundly normative and normalizing process This study maps the complex processes of state making moral regulation and social control during three critical reform periods the Yongzheng reign 1723 1735 the Guomindang s Nanjing decade 1927 1937 and the Communist Party s Socialist Education Campaign 1962 1966 During each period central authorities introduced not without resistance institutional change designed to extend the reach of central control over local political life The successes and failures of state building in each case rested largely upon the ability of each regime to construct itself as an autonomous moral agent both separate from and embedded in an imagined political community Thornton offers a historical reading of the state making process as a contest between central and local regimes of bureaucratic and discursive practice

“All Authority Has Been Given To Me” Tim Lehman,2019-11-20 For much of Christian history greater focus has been paid to Jesus death than to his three years of ministry and his crucifixion has often been understood primarily as a means to salvation in heaven But retired pastor Tim Lehman contends that we ve drastically missed the point by not looking closely at and learning from Jesus words and actions before his death As a result we lose out on the joy and freedom of living fully as his disciples and experiencing salvation already in this life on earth In this broad study of Matthew s Gospel Lehman challenges readers to view Jesus death in light of his life He urges us not just to believe in Jesus but to believe Jesus to take seriously all that he taught and how he lived As Lehman leads readers along a carefully laid path Christians and non Christians alike will have to rethink long held assumptions the place of violence in the Christian life the givenness of division in our modern world the meaning of atonement salvation and the kingdom of heaven and more But along the way we are sure to learn grow and hopefully come to know more deeply God s unconditional love for all
