Ramblin's and Recollections Don Hill, 2002-10 The philosopher says you can't go home again yet we try Of course we know the good old days will never return or be the same again but that doesn't stop the memories of those days gone by What wonderful things memories And how strange it is just how the mind sorts them all out It seems the wonderful mind likes to remember the good things and tries to block out the bad Yes memories are just stored away waiting for that special moment They are often fleeting there for a moment and then gone going back waiting for another chance to pop out One needs an Indian Dream Catcher to hold them in place for others to enjoy This then is my book of catches All the memories are not here There are still some just waiting for that special moment It may be like the other day while painting my back door and the brush pauses in mid air and my daughter asks Dad why are you smiling And I reply Nothing Hon nothing at all For a moment I just went home again Ramblin Recollections of Past Times; Embracing a Period from the Termination of Last Till the Close of the Twentieth Year of the Present Century Adam DAWSON, 1868 The Rambles and Recollections of "R'Dick" (Robert Dottie) Robert Dottie, 1899 Practising Colonial Medicine Anna Crozier, 2007-10-24 The role of the Colonial Medical Service the organisation responsible for healthcare in British overseas territories goes to the heart of the British Colonial project Practising Colonial Medicine is a unique study based on original sources and research into the work of doctors who served in East Africa It shows the formulation of a distinct colonial identity based on factors of race class background training and Colonial Service traditions buttressed by professional skills and practice Recruitment to the Medical Service bound its members to the Colonial Service ethos exemplified by the principles of the legendary Sir Ralph Furse head of Colonial Office recruitment to the Service Thus the Service was to be a corps d'elite consisting of Furse's good men self-reliant practical conscientious professionally qualified people whose personalities were such as to command the respect and trust of the native inhabitants of the colony Professional qualifications were important but secondary to character Anna Crozier analyses all aspects of recruitment qualifications training as well as the vital personal factors that shaped the Service's character religion a sense of adventure professional interest ideas of imperial service family traditions professional ties perceptions of service to humanity and the building up of a common service mentality among colonial medical staff This is the first comprehensive history of the Colonial Medical Service and makes an important contribution to our understanding of the social and cultural aspects of medical history I Remember My Firsts... Don Hill, 2018-10-31 Eighty-eight year old Don Hill has lived many experiences during his lifetime He enjoys recalling many of them In his first book Ramblin's his one act plays poetry letters and many other writings The scope covers many subjects as he enjoys the newfound thing word processing He says it works better than the quill Ramblin' Man: The Life and Times of Woody Guthrie Ed Cray, 2006-03-17 Winner of the Oklahoma Book Award and the Deems Taylor ASCAP Award for Best Folk Pop or Jazz Biography A beautiful job In exploring the nuances of Guthrie's work Cray's exacting style is pitch perfect Los Angeles Times
