and works in general within multimodal studies represent a dialectic or complementarity between the exploration of issues of general significance to multimodal studies and the exploration of specific domains of multimodality while characterizing specific works as tending to some degree towards one or other of these main areas of focus Such a characterization is seen as part of a move towards the identification and thus development of a distinct field of multimodal studies Six Little whisper the legend of a being caught between life and death a master of shadows who bore the secrets of forgotten magic This legend was forgotten until today Reborn in iron armor and with a sword as cold as the grave a new power has arisen bound to a destiny as twisted as the dark magic that flows through his veins But the world is no longer the same Old empires have crumbled gods have fallen silent and humanity clings to survival under the shadow of cruel beasts and tyrants In a realm full of ancient terrors a lone warrior rises a fragile spark in an endless storm armed with cursed magic and an unbending will Now a path of rebellion is forged through this unforgiving world With every step secrets come to light that would have been better left buried and powers emerge that can hardly be restrained Forged anew in the fire of revenge unstoppable and implacable this new champion marches toward an uncertain destiny This world has not yet known true darkness but that will soon change Welcome to the edge of the unknown Dragon's blood Henry Milner

Twenty years on from the end of war the status of the north of Kosovo remains disputed. Ten years on from Kosovo's declaration of independence from Serbia the north's predominantly Serb population continues to resist integration. Education, health and other vital services continue to be provided by Serbia. These latent tensions regularly surface through various forms of resistance including protests and barricades, most notably those of 2011 resistance which has many historical precedents. Ian Bancroft provides an original ethnographic account of the reality in north Kosovo, mixing first hand interviews and anecdotes with historical background and academic insight. He explores a diverse array of themes including the Trepča mines, religious and cultural life and the Main Bridge over the river Ibar which has become a symbol of the divided town of Mitrovica. Bancroft examines memories of the war and 2004 riots and the daily realities of local governance and politics in a post war environment. The book also goes to the heart of the border boundary regions, the multi ethnic Bojnjak Mahala and mixed areas on the periphery to tell the stories of those caught up on the front lines of conflict. As such it offers valuable insights for aspiring peacebuilders into the challenges of working in a context of considerable complexity. Dragon's Teeth Upton Sinclair, 2016-01-19

Pulitzer Prize Winner. An American in Germany fights against the rising tide of Nazi terror in this monumental saga of twentieth century world history. In the wake of the 1929 stock market crash, Lanny Budd's financial acumen and his marriage into great wealth enable him to continue the lifestyle he has always enjoyed. But the devastation the collapse has wrought on ordinary citizens has only strengthened Lanny's socialist ideals, much to the chagrin of his heiress wife Irma, a confirmed capitalist. In Germany to visit relatives, Lanny encounters a disturbing atmosphere of hatred and jingoism. His concern over the growing popularity of the Nazi Party escalates when he meets Adolf Hitler, the group's fanatical leader and the members of his inner circle. But Lanny's gravest fear is the threat a national socialist government poses to the German Jewish family of Hansi, the musician husband of Lanny's sister Bess, a threat that will impel the international art dealer to risk his wealth, his future, even his life in a courageous attempt to rescue his loved ones from a terrible fate. Winner of the 1943 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction, Dragon's Teeth brilliantly captures the nightmarish march toward the Second World War. An astonishing mix of history, adventure and romance, the Lanny Budd Novels are a testament to the breathtaking scope of Upton Sinclair's vision and his singular talents as a storyteller. The Dragon's War Maochun Yu, 2013-07-31

Making full use of significant new sources in Chinese language materials, U.S. Naval Academy professor Maochun Yu provides Western readers with the first detailed account of military and intelligence operations conducted inside China by foreign powers between 1937 and 1945. He also addresses the profound impact of these operations upon China's nationalism, wartime politics and overall military campaigns. Arguing that operations by the USSR, the United States, Britain and France in particular challenged the authority and legitimacy of the Chinese nationalist government he illustrates how the failure of the Nationalist Government under Chiang Kai shek to control these operations contributed to its demise following World War II This provocative work unveils like never before the extraordinary intrigue command and operational manipulations international espionage and politics surrounding military and intelligence operations in wartime China among the allies It covers such topics as foreign military aid programs to China the Chinese secret police s massive joint intelligence organization with the U S Navy special intelligence initiatives conducted by the British Free French and Americans secret British and American dealings with the Chinese Communists America s first covert overseas military operation the Flying Tigers and Soviet and American military personnel in the China theater The author points to the remarkable political and military ramifications that these operations had in China including the inadvertent creation of conditions that allowed the rise of Communist China With its implications on the world scene today such an important new perspective of China during its war against Japan will appeal to a general audience as well as to students of World War II and specialists in the military and intelligence communities     The dragon's blood Rebecca Mark,1994     The Dragon's Bride Jo Beverley,2005-12-27
