Modernism as part of a dialectical response to the Romantic legacy Contributors also examine how Romanticism has been reconstituted within postmodern and postcolonial literature as both a reassessment of the Modernist critique and of the imperial contexts that have throughout this time frame underpinned the Romantic legacy bringing into focus the contemporaneity of Romanticism and its political legacy This collection reveals the diversity and continuing relevance of the genre in new and exciting ways offering insights into writers such as Browning Ruskin Pater Wilde Lewis MacNeice and Auster

The Secular Scripture and Other Writings on Critical Theory, 1976-1991 Northrop Frye, 2006-12-15 Northrop Frye s The Secular Scripture was first published in 1976 and was soon recognized as one of his most influential works reflecting an extensive development of Frye s thoughts about romance as a literary form This new edition in the Collected Works of Northrop Frye series brings The Secular Scripture together with thirty shorter pieces pertaining to literary theory and criticism from the last fifteen years of Frye s life Frye s study illuminates the enduring attraction and deep human significance of the romance genre in all its forms He provides a unique perspective on popular fiction and culture and shows how romance forms have by their very structural and conventional features an ability to address both specific social concerns and deep and fundamental human concerns that span time and place In distinguishing popular from elite culture Frye insists that they are both ultimately two aspects of the same human compulsion to create in the face of chaos The additional late writings reflect Frye s sense at the time that he was working toward some kind of final statement which eventually saw the light of day only months before his death as Words with Power 1990

The Poetics of Decadence Fusheng Wu, 1998-04-30 A reconsideration of Chinese decadent tuipei poetry which argues that this poetry is not a marginal trend but rather a vital part of the Chinese literary tradition

Atkins reveals the joy delight grace freedom and wisdom of the glorious essay Acts of Hope James Boyd White,1995-08-16 To which institutions or social practices should we grant authority When should we instead assert our own sense of what is right or good or necessary In this book James Boyd White shows how texts by some of our most important thinkers and writers including Plato Shakespeare Dickinson Mandela and Lincoln answer these questions not in the abstract but in the way they wrestle with the claims of the world and self in particular historical and cultural contexts As they define afresh the institutions or practices for which they claim or resist authority they create authorities of their own in the very modes of thought and expression they employ They imagine their world anew and transform the languages that give it meaning In so doing White maintains these works teach us about how to read and judge claims of authority made by others upon us how to decide to which institutions and practices we should grant authority and how to create authorities of our own through our thoughts and arguments Elegant and accessible this book will appeal to anyone wanting to better understand one of the primary processes of our social and political lives
