Rastafari From Outcasts To Culture Bearers:

Rastafari Ennis Barrington Edmonds, 2002-12-26 Once an obscure group of outcasts from the ghettos of West Kingston Jamaica the Rastafarians have transformed themselves into a vibrant movement firmly grounded in Jamaican society and beyond In Rastafari Ennis Barrington Edmonds provides a compelling portrait of the Rastafarian phenomenon and chronicles how this group much maligned and persecuted became a dominant cultural force in the world today Edmonds charts the evolution of the relationship between Rastafari and the wider Jamaican society from confrontation and repression to grudging tolerance and eventually to cultural integration Edmonds focuses in particular on the internal development of Rastafarianism as a social movement with its network of houses small informal groups that form around leading Rastas and mansions larger more communal associations to track the process of this strikingly successful integration He further demonstrates how Rastafarian artistic creativity especially in fashioning the music and message of reggae was a significant factor in the transition of Rastas from the status of outcasts to the position of cultural bearers

Rastafari Ennis Barrington Edmonds, 2003 Rastafari and the Arts Darren Middleton, 2015-02-11 Drawing on literary musical and visual representations of and by Rastafari Darren J N Middleton provides an introduction to Rasta through the arts broadly conceived The religious underpinnings of the Rasta movement are often overshadowed by Rasta s association with reggae music dub and performance poetry Rastafari and the Arts An Introduction takes a fresh view of Rasta considering the relationship between the artistic and religious dimensions of the movement in depth Middleton s analysis complements current introductions to Afro Caribbean religions and offers an engaging example of the role of popular culture in illuminating the beliefs and practices of emerging religions Recognizing that outsiders as well as insiders have shaped the Rasta movement since its modest beginnings in Jamaica Middleton includes interviews with members of both groups including Ejay Khan Barbara Makeda Blake Hannah Geoffrey Philp Asante Amen Reggae Rajahs Benjamin Zephaniah Monica Haim Blakk Rasta Rocky Dawuni and Marvin D Sterling

Messianic 'I' and Rastafari in New Testament Dialogue Delano Vincent Palmer, 2010-04-13 Anyone familiar with the Rastafari movement and its connection with the Bible is struck by the prevalence of messianic I locution found in both As the phenomenon is important in the canonical Testaments more so within the New Testament this study seeks to investigate its significance in certain epistolary pieces Romans 7 14 25 15 14 33 the bio Narratives and the Apocalypse in their historical and cultural milieu The next stage of the investigation then compares the findings of the aforementioned New Testament books with corresponding statements of the Rasta community in order to determine their relevance for the ongoing Anglophone theological enterprise In sum this study seeks to bring into critical dialogue the permutative messianic I of the New Testament with the self understanding of Rastafari

Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean Debbie Lee-DiStefano, Luisa Marcela Ossa, 2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in

Latin America and the Caribbean Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history literature art and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities What this interdisciplinary collection presents is a more cohesive approach that strives to place them at the center together and view their relationships in their historical contexts

Green Consumption Bart Barendregt, Rivke Jaffe, 2020-05-15 Green lifestyles and ethical consumption have become increasingly popular strategies in moving towards environmentally friendly societies and combating global poverty Where previously environmentalists saw excess consumption as central to the problem green consumerism now places consumption at the heart of the solution However ethical and sustainable consumption are also important forms of central to the creation and maintenance of class distinction Green Consumption scrutinizes the emergent phenomenon of what this book terms eco chic a combination of lifestyle politics environmentalism spirituality beauty and health Eco chic connects ethical sustainable and elite consumption It is increasingly part of the identity kit of certain sections of society who seek to combine taste and style with care for personal wellness and the environment This book deals with eco chic as a set of activities an ideological framework and a popular marketing strategy offering a critical examination of its manifestations in both the global North and South The diverse case studies presented in this book range from Basque sheep cheese production and Ghanaian Afro chic hairstyles to Asian tropical spa culture and Dutch fair trade jewellery initiatives The authors assess the ways in which eco chic with its apparent paradox of consumption and idealism can make a genuine contribution to
