Facing the East in the West Barbara Korte, Eva Ulrike Pirker, Sissy Helff, 2010 Over the last decade migration flows from Central and Eastern Europe have become an issue in political debates about human rights social integration multiculturalism and citizenship in Great Britain The increasing number of Eastern Europeans living in Britain has provoked ambivalent and diverse responses including representations in film and literature that range from travel writing humorous fiction mockumentaries musicals drama and children s literature to the thriller The present volume discusses a wide range of representations of Eastern and Central Europe and its people as reflected in British literature film and culture The book offers new readings of authors who have influenced the cultural imagination since the nineteenth century such as Bram Stoker George Bernard Shaw Joseph Conrad and Arthur Koestler It also discusses the work of more contemporary writers and film directors including Sacha Baron Cohen David Cronenberg Vesna Goldsworthy Kapka Kassabova Marina Lewycka Ken Loach Mike Phillips Joanne K Rowling and Rose Tremain With its focus on post Wall Europe Facing the East in the West goes beyond discussions of migration to Britain from an established postcolonial perspective and contributes to the current exploration of new European identities

Rates of Exchange Malcolm Bradbury, 2015-05-19 Shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize In this comedic novel an English professor collides with disaster at the peak of the Cold War Shortly after his plane first grazes the tarmac in the eastern European nation of Slaka Dr Angus Petworth is beset by a cavalcade of misadventures A university lecturer and seasoned international traveler Petworth is nevertheless unprepared for the oddities of culture and circumstance that await him on the other side of the iron curtain In two eventful weeks Petworth gives an incendiary interview is seduced by a femme fatale and becomes embroiled in a plot of international intrigue all of which conspire to give the mild unassuming professor way more than he bargained for Satirizing everything from critics and diplomats to Marxism and academia Malcolm Bradbury s Rates of Exchange is a witty and lighthearted novel of cultural interchange at the height of the Cold War

Rose, 2003 Annotation As he nears the conventional age of retirement and looks back over his career Rose sociology and anthropology Smith College assembles 35 stories about places he has been things he has done and especially people he has encountered The few that have been published previously have been extensively revised usually shortened More a memoir than a history the collection has no notes or index Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com     When the World Turned Upside-down Kathleen Starck, 2009 This collection of essays explores post 1989 Western perceptions of Eastern Europe and how these manifest themselves in cultural representations It starts out from findings in the academic field of post socialism claiming that "Easterners and Westerners are still very much under the influence of the socialisation they underwent during the Cold War and its aftermath. As a consequence the revolutions of 1989 and 1990 and the subsequent opportunities for exchange did not necessarily bring about a reconciliation of the different worldviews. It seems the East-West divide has not simply vanished with the collapse of socialism. The essays included in this book examine in how far the divide is mirrored in the cultural arena. They focus on portrayals of post-1989 Eastern European political and social transformations in Western poetry, fiction, travel writing, autobiography, theatre and documentaries and investigate the West's fascination with the 'Wild East' and how outsiders view or have experienced Eastern life after the iron curtain was lifted.
