AYLWARD BARBARA K. KEOGH FRANK R. BROWN III, 2013-12-01 Read, Reflect, Write Carmen Collins, 1984 Learning Through Teaching Mathematics Roza Leikin, Rina Zazkis, 2010-04-10 The idea of teachers Learning through Teaching LTT when presented to a naïve bystander appears as an oxymoron Are we not supposed to learn before we teach After all under the usual circumstances learning is the task for those who are being taught not of those who teach However this book is about the learning of teachers not the learning of students It is an ancient wisdom that the best way to truly learn something is to teach it to others Nevertheless once a teacher has taught a particular topic or concept and consequently truly learned it what is left for this teacher to learn As evident in this book the experience of teaching presents teachers with an exciting opportunity for learning throughout their entire career This means acquiring a better understanding of what is being taught and moreover learning a variety of new things What these new things may be and how they are learned is addressed in the collection of chapters in this volume LTT is acknowledged by multiple researchers and mathematics educators In the first chapter Leikin and Zazkis review literature that recognizes this phenomenon and stress that only a small number of studies attend systematically to LTT processes The authors in this volume purposefully analyze the teaching of mathematics as a source for teachers' own learning Literacies, Sexualities, and Gender Barbara J. Guzzetti, Thomas W. Bean, Judith Dunkerly-Bean, 2018-11-15 Offering diverse and wide ranging perspectives on gender sexualities and literacies this volume examines the intersection of these topics from preschool to adulthood With a focus on current events race and the complex role of identity this text starts with an overview of the current research on gender and sexualities in literacies and interrogates them from a range of multimodal contexts Not restricted to any gender identity or age group these chapters provide a much needed and original update to the ways representations and performances of gender and sexualities through literacy practices are viewed in educational and sociocultural contexts Scholars share their insights and transformative

visions that respect and embrace difference while creating space for new and deeper understandings of contemporary issues
