teacher's guide to setting up any grade 2-4 classroom for reading success. You won't find any busywork, condescending lectures, or boring worksheets in this book. Instead, you'll learn flexible reading strategies to blend into your lessons at the start of the school year that will support your students for years to come. This book also debunks old school ideas about reading instruction and explains the concepts that you'll need to know as you help students build a foundation for their future as readers. Former elementary teacher and instructional coach Ciera Harris has achieved remarkable, replicable results with young readers not with a rigid system or program but with a new approach to thinking about reading. In this book, you'll learn why it makes sense to go beyond all the lessons of phonics, fluency, and vocabulary by making reading personal to each student. This easy-to-use approach has helped teachers across the country create a culture of reading within their classrooms so students, even those that struggle the most with reading, can start view themselves as readers. Help students learn based on what interests them as individuals and watch budding readers bloom. Discover why reading is not a series of decoding skills but a personal, powerful act of thinking. Learn the steps to setting up your classroom for reading success at the beginning of the year. Get engaging lesson plans and techniques for implementing primary reading strategies like schema, asking questions, metacognition, and so much more. Overcome common roadblocks including student resistance to reading. With The Thinking Reader, elementary school teachers in grades 2-4 can build the ultimate framework for reading success.

Common Core Literacy for ELA, History/Social Studies, and the Humanities Katherine S. McKnight, 2014-04-18

Common Core Literacy for ELA, History, Social Studies, and the Humanities. In this age of the Common Core State Standards, all content area teachers must integrate literacy standards into their curriculum. If you're like most content area educators, you're feeling a bit overwhelmed at the thought of applying the new standards, or you might just need a little extra help. In this hands-on resource, Common Core literacy expert Katherine McKnight offers secondary teachers a clear understanding of what literacy looks like in English Language Arts, ELA, social studies, and other humanities-related subjects. She gives educators proven teaching techniques that will help them to develop literacy skills in their students. The book offers a wealth of practical strategies and activities that content area teachers can integrate seamlessly. Included are: A selection of activities that support literacy skills and build content knowledge; Ideas for implementing the literacy requirements of the Common Core in specific content areas; An easy-to-use Difficulty Dial that indicates the complexity of each activity; Robust student samples that bring the activities to life across a variety of grade levels. Praise for Common Core Literacy for ELA, History, Social Studies, and the Humanities: McKnight eloquently dispels much of the mythology surrounding the new standards and explains how to help students find success. You'll find this engaging book your go-to resource for implementing the Common Core. Richard M. Cash, Ed.D., Educational Consultant, Author, Advancing Differentiation: Thinking and Learning for the 21st Century. While this book would be a gift to any beginning teacher, its practical and comprehensible support for literacy as defined by the Common Core State Standards makes it a must-have for all teachers. Laura Garner, Language Arts Coordinator.
