Perrault Ph.D., Elizabeth S. Aversa, Sonia Ramírez Wohlmuth, Cynthia J. Miller, Cynthia F. Miller, 2012-12-10 This familiar guide to information resources in the humanities and the arts organized by subjects and emphasizing electronic resources enables librarians teachers and students to quickly find the best resources for their diverse needs Authoritative trusted and timely Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Sixth Edition introduces new librarians to the breadth of humanities collections experienced librarians to the nature of humanities scholarship and the scholars themselves to a wealth of information they might otherwise have missed This new version of a classic resource the first update in over a decade has been refreshed to account for the myriad of digital resources that have rewritten the rules of the reference and research world and been expanded to include significantly increased coverage of world literature and languages This book is invaluable for a wide variety of users librarians in academic public school and special library settings researchers in religion philosophy literature and the performing and visual arts graduate students in library and information science and teachers and students in humanities the arts and interdisciplinary degree programs Plato in the Italian Renaissance. 1 (1990) James Hankins,1990 Science in the Ancient World Russell M. Lawson,2021-09-23 Science in the Ancient World presents a worldwide history of science from prehistoric times through the medieval period It covers Europe Africa Asia and the Americas and includes topics ranging from alchemy and astrology to psychology and physics This work spans prehistory to 1500 CE examining thousands of years of history in four world regions Asia Africa Europe and the Americas Highlights of this period include the onset of civilization and science in Mesopotamia and Egypt the accomplishments of the ancient Greeks between 700 BCE and 100 CE the adaptation of Greek science by the Romans the spread of Greek science during the Hellenistic Age the expansion of Islamic power and commensurate scientific knowledge and the development of science and philosophy in ancient China and India Focusing on the history of the science that blossomed in the above regions scientific disciplines covered include alchemy astronomy astrology agriculture architecture biology botany chemistry engineering exploration geography hydraulics institutions of science marine science mathematics medicine meteorology military science myth and religion philosophy philosophy of science psychology physics and social sciences In all of these fields theory and application are explored as are leading individuals and schools of thought centers of intellectual activity and notable accomplishments and inventions Interdisciplinary Studies in the Humanities Elizabeth Bayerl,1977 The Forest in Medieval German Literature Albrecht Classen,2015-06-03 By pursuing an ecocritical reading The Forest in Medieval German Literature examines passages in medieval German texts where protagonists operated in the forest and found themselves either in conflictual situations or in refuge By probing the way the individual authors dealt with the forest illustrating how their characters fared in this sylvan space the role of the forest proved to be of supreme importance in understanding the fundamental relationship between humans and nature The medieval forest almost always introduced an epistemological challenge how to cope in life or how to find one's way in this natural maze By approaching these narratives through modern ecocritical issues that are paired with premodern perspectives we gain a solid and far reaching understanding of how medieval concepts can aid in a better understanding of human society and nature in its historical context This book revisits some of the best and lesser known examples of medieval German literature and the critical approach used here will allow us to recognize the importance of medieval literature for a profound reassessment of our modern existence with respect to our own forests Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1998 Reimagining Mobilities across the Humanities Lucio Biasiori,Federico Mazzini,Chiara Rabbiosi,2023-01-31 Volume 1 Theories Methods and Ideas explores the mobility of ideas through time and space and how interdisciplinary theories and methodological approaches used in mobilities studies can be profitably utilised within the humanities and social sciences Through a series of short chapters mobility is employed as an elastic inclusive and multifaceted concept across various disciplines to shed light on a geographically and chronologically broad range of issues and case studies In doing so the concept of mobility is positioned as a powerful catalyst for historical change and as a fruitful approach to research in the humanities and social sciences Like its sister volume this volume is edited and written by members of the Centre for Advanced Studies in Mobility and the Humanities MoHu at the Department of Historical and Geographical Sciences and The Ancient World DiSSGeA of the University of Padua Italy The structure of the book mirrors the Theories and Methods and Ideas thematic research clusters of the Centre Afterwords from leading scholars from other institutions synthesise and reflect upon the findings of each section This volume together with Volume 2 Objects People and Texts makes a compelling case for the use of mobility studies as a research framework in the humanities and social sciences As such it will be of interest to students and researchers in various disciplines
