Nonreligion in Late Modern Societies Anne-Laure Zwillig,Helge Årsheim,2022-06-14 This volume presents results from new and ongoing research efforts into the role of nonreligion in education politics law and society from a variety of different countries Featuring data from a wide range of quantitative and qualitative studies the book exposes the relational dynamics of religion and nonreligion Firstly it highlights the extent to which nonreligion is defined and understood by legal and institutional actors on the basis of religions and often replicates the organisation of society and majority religions At the same time it displays how essential it is to approach nonreligion on its own by freeing oneself from the frameworks from which religion is thought The book addresses pressing questions such as How can nonreligion be defined and how can the nones be grasped and taken into account in studies on religion How does the sociocultural and religious backdrop of different countries affect the regulation and representation of nonreligion in law and policymaking Where and how do nonreligious individuals and collectives fit into institutions in contemporary societies How does nonreligion affect notions of citizenship and national belonging Despite growing scholarly interest in the increasing number of people without religion the role of nonreligion in legal and institutional settings is still largely unexplored This volume helps fill the gap and will be of interest to students researchers policymakers and others seeking deeper understanding of the changing role of nonreligion in modern societies Contemporary Review ,1898 Singing the Classical, Voicing the Modern Amanda J. Weidman,2006-07-18

DIVAn ethnographic history and critique of the emergence of South Indian carnatic music as a classical music in the 20th century div The Contemporary Review ,1898 George Herbert and Early Modern Musical Culture Simon Jackson,2022-12-01 Described by one contemporary as the sweet singer of The Temple George Herbert has long been recognised as a lover of music Nevertheless Herbert s own participation in seventeenth century musical culture has yet to be examined in detail This is the first extended critical study to situate Herbert s roles as priest poet and musician in the context of the musico poetic activities of members of his extended family from the song culture surrounding William Herbert and Mary Sidney to the philosophy of his eldest brother Edward Herbert of Cherbury It examines the secular visual music of the Stuart court masque as well as the sacred songs of the church Arguing that Herbert s reading of Augustine helped to shape his musical thought it explores the tension between the abstract ideal of music and its practical performance to articulate the distinctive theological insights Herbert derived from the musical culture of his time Get the Callback Jonathan Flom,2016-05-02 All great auditions require preparation and practice but what s the secret to securing a callback What are the best ways to prepare for that pivotal moment And once you re in front of the casting director what does it take to make the most out of your moment in the spotlight In this second edition of Get the Callback The Art of Auditioning for Musical Theatre Jonathan Flom provides practical advice on the many facets of preparation including selection of songs and monologues to suit your voice and the audition organizing and arranging your music working with the accompanist and presenting yourself to the casting team The book gives a detailed description of the actual audition performance and even offers advice on how non dancers can survive a dance audition In addition to extensively revised chapters on the audition process and how to build a repertoire book this guide also features updated chapters on headshots resumes and cover letters voice training techniques from Matthew Edward advice from musical director Joey Chancey and a foreword by casting director Joy Dewing Aimed at professionals as well as young artists this second edition of Get the Callback is a must have for both seasoned and aspiring musical theatre performers
