Ready All, Row! Karl F. Drlica, 1956 Crew Mary Beth Roberts, 2007 The introduction of women's rowing as an NCAA sport is only one of many factors that helped crew shed its elitist Ivy League image and made it the fast growing activity that it is today Now Sports Illustrated veteran photographer Ronald C Modra and his wife journalist M B Roberts have filled the need for an authoritative guide for all participants from high school and college athletes and their parents coaches and trainers to adults eager to try rowing for the first time Along with background on the sport's history going back to ancient times here's complete instruction on everything from getting into the shell safely without shoving your foot through the bottom to efficient rowing form and competitive racing strategy Men of Kent Rick Rinehart, 2010-09-14 Men of Kent is first and foremost an archetypical sports tale a story of the improbable happening to the unlikely unfolding against the backdrop of a turbulent era Both an homage and a unique inside look at the fast growing sport of rowing it embraces the sport's history traditions and culture as it tells the story of ten ordinary boys and their coach from Kent Connecticut who found themselves in extraordinary circumstances during the spring and summer of 1972 The Kent School's 1972 crew of which the author was a part had a 46-0 winning streak broke three course records and claimed a national championship In its final race at the fabled Henley Royal Regatta in England a race broadcast on television worldwide it barely edged the Canadian National Champions Kent's achievement merited a banner headline in the New York Times sports section and is regarded as one of the most breathtaking finishes in Henley's long history Boys' Life, 1960-08 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting The Inward Morning Henry Bugbee, 2012-08-15 When first published in 1958 The Inward Morning was ahead of its time Boldly original it blended East and West nature and culture the personal and the universal The critical establishment confounded largely ignored the work Readers however embraced Bugbee's lyrical philosophy of wilderness Throughout the 1960s and 1970s this philosophical daybook enjoyed the status of an underground classic With this paperback reissue The Inward Morning will be brought to the attention of a new generation Henry Bugbee is increasingly recognized as the only truly American existentialist and an original philosopher of wilderness who is an inspiration to a growing number of contemporary philosophers The Hard'n-Back Patrick Moran, 2013-04-23 A sports odyssey about a planet whose water borne raft dwelling peoples must compete in globe girding rowing regattas in order to win the right to reproduce Failure to win means facing the Long Death of extinction But more than telling of a fight for survival The Hard'n Back tells a love story whose timeless dimensions of devotion and sacrifice reach beyond the boundaries of survival itself The Seven Seat Daniel J. Boyne, 2019-08-23 Harvard University coach and acclaimed rowing author Dan Boyne tells a humorous story of his first year of freshman crew including a sub plot of personal redemption against an insufferable football player who has bullied him throughout high school After being accepted at Trinity College in Hartford
