Sentenced To Live:

Life Without Parole Charles J. Ogletree, Austin Sarat, 2012-06-04 Is life without parole the perfect compromise to the death penalty Or is it as ethically fraught as capital punishment This comprehensive interdisciplinary anthology treats life without parole as the new death penalty Editors Charles J Ogletree Jr and Austin Sarat bring together original work by prominent scholars in an effort to better understand the growth of life without parole and its social cultural political and legal meanings What justifies the turn to life imprisonment How should we understand the fact that this penalty is used disproportionately against racial minorities What are the most promising avenues for limiting reforming or eliminating life without parole sentences in the United States Contributors explore the structure of life without parole sentences and the impact they have on prisoners where the penalty fits in modern theories of punishment and prospects for as well as challenges to reform Exploring the Mandatory Life Sentence for Murder Barry Mitchell, Julian V Roberts, 2012-10-19 Murder is often regarded as both the ultimate and a unique crime and whereas courts are normally given discretion in sentencing offenders for murder the sentence is mandatory indeterminate imprisonment Since the crime and the punishment come as a package deal this book looks at both the legal nature of the offence and at the current operation of the mandatory life sentence Not only does the book adopt a critical approach by assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the status quo it also draws upon comparative material from both common and civil law jurisdictions in an attempt to provide a comprehensive exploration of these issues The need for public confidence in the criminal justice system is particularly acute in the way it deals with the most serious homicides In this book the authors report findings from the first systematic exploration of public attitudes to sentencing murder in this or any other common law jurisdiction The picture of public opinion emerging from this recent large scale nationwide qualitative and quantitative survey funded by the Nuffield Foundation is likely to surprise many and will be of interest to all jurisdictions where the mandatory life sentence for murder has been questioned Women Doing Life Lora Bex Lempert, 2016-02-19 In Women Doing Life Lora Bex Lempert examines the carceral experiences of women serving life sentences presenting a typology of the ways that life sentenced women grow and self actualize resist prison definitions reflect on and own their criminal acts and ultimately create meaningful lives behind prison walls Looking beyond the explosive headlines that often characterize these women as monsters Lempert offers rare insight into this vulnerable little studied population Her gendered analysis considers the ways that women do crime differently than men and how they have qualitatively different experiences of imprisonment than their male counterparts Provided by publisher Indian Sex Life Durba Mitra, 2020-01-07 During the colonial period Indian intellectuals philologists lawyers scientists and literary figures all sought to hold a mirror to their country Whether they wrote novels polemics or scientific treatises all sought a better understanding of society in general and their society in particular Curiously female sexuality and sexual behavior play an outside role in their writing The figure of the prostitute is ubiquitous in everything from medical texts and treatises on racial evolution to anti Muslim polemic and studies of ancient India In this book Durba Mitra argues that between the 1840s and the 1940s the new science of sexuality became foundational to the scientific study of Indian social progress The colonial state and an emerging set of Bengali male intellectuals extended the regulation of sexuality to far reaching projects that sought to define what society should look like and how modern citizens should behave An exploration of this history of social scientific thought offers new perspectives to understand the power of paternalistic and deeply violent claims about sexual norms in the postcolonial world today These histories reveal the enduring authority of scientific claims to a tradition that equates social good with the control of women s free will and desire Thus they managed to dramatically reorganize their society around upper caste Hindu ideals of strict monogamy

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1975 Imperfect Victims Leigh Goodmark,2023-01-31 A profound compelling argument for abolition feminism to protect criminalized survivors of gender based violence we must dismantle the carceral system Since the 1970s anti violence advocates have worked to make the legal system more responsive to gender based violence But greater state intervention in cases of intimate partner violence rape sexual assault and trafficking has led to the arrest prosecution conviction and incarceration of victims particularly women of color and trans and gender nonconforming people Imperfect Victims argues that only dismantling the system will bring that punishment to an end Amplifying the voices of survivors including her own clients abolitionist law professor Leigh Goodmark deftly guides readers on a step by step journey through the criminalization of survival Abolition feminism reveals the possibility of a just world beyond the carceral state which is fundamentally unable to respond to let alone remedy harm As Imperfect Victims shows abolition feminism is the only politics and practice that can undo the indescribable damage inflicted on survivors by the very system purporting to protect them Public Order Policing Bernd Bürger,Tamara D. Herold,Ryan Lee,2023-12-31

Successful public order management is critical to upholding democracy and maintaining the rule of law Negative police public interactions during assemblies can impact the safety and well being of citizens and officers as well as local and international perceptions of police legitimacy As observed during events across the world including assemblies in the U S Myanmar Belarus Russia and elsewhere police mismanagement of mass demonstrations often instigates crowd violence and other harmful behaviors The causes of violence at assemblies are complex and multi faceted Failure to understand crowd dynamics that lead to violence limits police effectiveness and contributes to poor officer decision making This book offers an

The Meaning of Life Marc Mauer,Ashley Nellis,2018-12-11 I can think of no authors more qualified to research the complex impact of life sentences than Marc Mauer and Ashley Nellis They have the expertise to track down the information that all citizens need to know and the skills to translate that research into accessible and powerful prose Heather Ann Thompson author of the Pulitzer Prize winning Blood in the Water From the author of the classic Race to Incarcerate a forceful and necessary argument for eliminating life sentences including profiles of six people directly impacted by life sentences by formerly incarcerated author Kerry Myers Most Western democracies have few or no people serving life sentences yet here in the United States more than 200 000 people are sentenced to such prison terms Marc Mauer and Ashley Nellis of The Sentencing Project argue that there is no practical or moral justification for a sentence longer than twenty years Harsher sentences have been shown to have little effect on crime rates since people age out of crime meaning that we re spending a fortune on geriatric care for older prisoners who pose little threat to public safety Extreme punishment for serious crime also has an inflationary effect on sentences across the spectrum helping to account for severe mandatory minimums and other harsh punishments A thoughtful and stirring call to action The Meaning of Life also features moving profiles of a half dozen people affected by life sentences written by former lifer and award winning writer Kerry Myers The book will tie in to a campaign spearheaded by The Sentencing Project and offers a much needed road map to a more humane criminal justice system
