Between Two Worlds Robin Judd, 2023-11-15 Facing the harrowing task of rebuilding a life in the wake of the Holocaust many Jewish survivors community and religious leaders and Allied soldiers viewed marriage between Jewish women and military personnel as a way to move forward after unspeakable loss Proponents believed that these unions were more than just a ticket out of war torn Europe they would help the Jewish people repopulate after the attempted annihilation of European Jewry Historian Robin

Judd whose grandmother survived the Holocaust and married an American soldier after liberation introduces us to the Jewish women who lived through genocide and went on to wed American Canadian and British military personnel after the war

Restaging War in the Western World M. Abbenhuis, S. Buttsworth, 2009-03-30 This collection seeks to move noncombatant perspectives to center stage acknowledging their importance destabilizing the primacy of the combatant and explaining or undermining the staging of warfare as a singular and acontextual production War Brides Melynda Jarratt, 2009-05-25 For thousands of young British girls the influx of Canadian soldiers conscripted to Britain during the Second World War meant throngs of handsome young men The result was over 48 000 marriages to Canadian soldiers alone and a mass emigration of British women to North America and around the world in the 1940 s For many brides the decision to leave their family and home to move to a country thousands of miles away with a man they hardly knew brought forth ensuing happiness For others the outcome was much different and the darker side of the story reveals the infidelity domestic violence poverty alcoholism and divorce that many lived through War Brides draws on original archival documents personal correspondence and key first hand accounts to tell the amazing story of the War Brides in their own words and shows the love passion tragedy and spirit of adventure of thousand of British women Voices of the Left Behind Olga Rains, Lloyd Rains, Melynda Jarratt, 2006-02-25 Voices of the Left Behind contains the personal stories of nearly 50 Canadian war children who have been helped by Project Roots It is filled with fascinating archival images and documents as well as original wartime correspondence between the mothers the Canadian fathers and the Department of National Defence Veterans Affairs and other Canadian institutions Letters from the war children to the Military Personnel Records Unit of the National Archives of Canada illustrate the historic pattern of denial What these institutions all have in common is their consistent refusal to help war children find their Canadian fathers Introductory essays frame the subject and give a historical context to the tragic situations these women and their children found themselves in War and Gender Joshua S. Goldstein, 2003-07-17 Gender roles are nowhere more prominent than in war Yet contentious debates and the scattering of scholarship across academic disciplines have obscured understanding of how gender affects war and vice versa In this authoritative and lively review of our state of knowledge Joshua Goldstein assesses the possible explanations for the near total exclusion of women from combat forces through history and across cultures Topics covered include the history of women who did fight and fought well the complex role of testosterone in men s social behaviours and the construction of masculinity and femininity in the shadow of war Goldstein concludes that killing in war does not come naturally for either gender and that gender norms often shape men women and children to the needs of the war system Illustrated with photographs drawings and graphics and drawing from scholarship spanning six academic disciplines this book provides a unique study of a fascinating issue Good-bye, Piccadilly Jenel Virden, 1996 Though the women came to the U S from all parts of the British Isles they were an unusually homogeneous group averaging 23 years of age from working or lower middle class families and having completed mandatory schooling to the age of fourteen For the most part they emigrated alone and didn't move into an existing immigrant population
