Lengel, 2025-04-22 This volume interrogates the mediatized politics of western intervention in Afghanistan to gain a deeper understanding of the occupation within the broader transition toward a multipolar global order Accurate histories of western interventions and regional realities are often obscured or even eclipsed in the accounts of western mainstream media which if anything tend to rue the withdrawals and lionize the suffering of returning troops This volume investigates the state s role in the dark underbelly of the shortsighted interventionist media narrative as well as the dehumanizing portrayals of people living in the Afghanistan Pakistan region In its opening section the book critically evaluates the narrative of the Global War on Terror as well as the wars launched after 9 11 that destabilized the Middle East The chapters in the following section contextualize developments in Afghanistan with a historical framework that will problematize linear narratives that are mobilized in support of interventions The chapters in the final section re present specific aspects of the geopolitical and humanitarian consequences that have eluded mainstream media workers including journalists and Hollywood moviemakers This book will be of interest to students of propaganda studies media and communication studies US foreign policy and international relations

A New Social Contract in a Latin American Education Context D. Streck,2010-12-20 A New Social Contract in a Latin American Education Context is committed to what has become known as perspective of the South understanding the South not as a geographical reference but as a vindication of the existence of ways of knowing and of living which struggle for their survival and for a legitimate place in a world where the respect for difference is balanced with the right for equality The metaphor of the new social contract stands for the desire to envision another world which paradoxically cannot but spring out of the entrails of the existing one Could the same contract under which the colonial orders were erected serve as a tool for decolonizing relations knowledge and power Consequently what kind of education could effectively help structure a new social contract These are some of the questions Streck addresses

Sacrifice and Modern War Writing Alex Houen,2024-09-05 Sacrifice and Modern War Writing

presents the most extensive study to date of twentieth and twenty first century war writing Examining works by over 110 authors Alex Houen surveys how war writing explores sacrifice in relation to major modern and contemporary conflicts from the First World War to the War on Terror Various conceptions of sacrifice are examined including Christian Jewish Islamic and secular The discussion ranges across literary portrayals of multiple sacrificial practices including ancient rituals of child sacrifice martyrdom scapegoating and suicide bombing Houen builds an innovative interdisciplinary approach to how war sacrifice and their representations interrelate and a wide range of Anglophone literature is discussed including novels memoirs short stories essays manifestoes elegies ballads and lyric poetry Whereas critics and theorists have tended to emphasize that war's reality exceeds any attempt to represent it Houen contends that political religious and cultural frames of sacrifice have continued to play a significant part in shaping how war's reality is shaped and experienced Those frames are inextricably tied to modes of representation which include symbolism and mimesis Sacrifice and Modern War Writing explores how sacrificial killing in war is itself riddled with symbolic transfigurations and mimetic exchanges and it builds a fresh approach by arguing that the figurative and imaginative aspects of literary writing ironically become its very means of engaging closely with the reality of war's sacrifices That approach also develops by using the literary analyses to critique and revise various prominent theories of sacrifice and war The Story of What Is Broken Is Whole Aurora Levins

Terrorism Neil J. Smelser, 2010-10-24 Terrorism is the most clear and present danger we confront today yet no phenomenon is more poorly understood by policymakers the media and the general public The Faces of Terrorism is the first serious interdisciplinary examination of terrorism in all its facets What gives rise to it who are its proponents and how do they think and how and why does it work Neil Smelser begins by tackling the fundamental problem of defining what exactly terrorism is He shows why a precise definition has eluded us until now and he proposes one that takes into account the full complexities of this unconventional and politically charged brand of violence He explores the root causes and conditions of terrorism and examines the ideologies that inspire and fuel it throughout the world Smelser looks closely at the terrorists themselves their recruitment their motivations the groups they form their intended audiences and their uses of the media in pursuing their agendas He studies the target societies as well unraveling the complicated social and psychological impacts of having to cope with the ever present threat of a terrorist strike and responding when one occurs He explains what it means to live under constant threat of terrorism and addresses the thorny domestic and foreign policy challenges this poses Throughout Smelser draws from the latest findings in sociology political science anthropology economics psychology psychiatry and history The Faces of Terrorism provides the breadth of scope necessary to understand and ultimately eliminate this most pressing global threat
