arias and ensembles and develops original ways to interpret the two largely overlooked operatic genres of secco recitative and finales Moreover Ford presents a new method by which to relate musical details directly to philosophical concepts and thereby the music of the operas to the inwardly contradictory thinking of the European Enlightenment This involves close readings of late eighteenth century understandings of man and nature self and other morality and transgression and gendered identities and sexuality with particular reference to contemporary writers especially Goethe Kant Laclos Rousseau Sade Schiller Sterne and Wollstonecraft The concluding discussion of the implied futures of the operas argues that their divided sexualities which are those of the Enlightenment as a whole have come to form our own unquestioned assumptions about gender differences and sexuality This along with the elegant and eloquent precision of Mozart's music is why Figaro Giovanni and Cos still maintain their vital immediacy for audiences today A Dictionary of the Gaelic Language Norman Macleod, Daniel Dewar, 1845 Harrison's British Classicks: The Tatler , 1785
