Serials Guide To Ethnoart:

Serials Guide to Ethnoart Eugene C. Burt, 1990-08-15 With the growth in interest in ethnographic materials this is an essential publication for large public libraries serving patrons with interests in anthropology and art Choice This indispensable directory of data on serials that contain information relevant to the study of ethnoart fills a gap long perceived by scholars of the indigenous arts of Africa Oceania and the Americas an area of academic focus in which reference materials have been generally lacking Culled from a database developed by compiler Eugene C Burt to track potentially useful periodicals in connection with his publication Ethnoarts Index the volume is designed to aid those with an interest in ethnoart in determining which serial publications best suit their research needs In the main directory users can find information on former titles publisher editorial focus content features and a relevancy rating on each of almost 700 individual serial titles that have an editorial focus related to ethnoart Nine separate appendices list recommended titles in various categories as well as serials that include indexing bibliographic or abstracting services ceased titles and more Titles include publications from the fields of art history anthropology history area studies librarianship museum studies and general interest magazines Prefatory material explains the book s organization and the rationale for its recommendations and is followed by the major portion of the volume the database of serials arranged alphabetically by title In each entry more than 20 categories of information are provided including an assigned relevancy rating that rates the level of relevancy of a publication to ethnoart based on the frequency that ethnoart oriented articles reviews etc appear Several indices make collection development recommendations based on the relevancy ratings with approximate cost information Additional appendices list titles by country of publication relevant ceased titles and more Finally a unique rotated keyword in title index that includes subtitles and former titles provides easy access to the main database All of this information will be welcomed by librarians scholars collectors dealers curators and students of ethnoart Highly recommended for librarians building ethnoart collections for university libraries where courses on any aspect of ethnoart are taught and for libraries of museums and research institutions with an interest in ethnoart

Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan, Atoma Batoma, 2014-10-16 This third edition of the Reference Guide to Africa explains the most important resources for the study of the continent of Africa It contains a general sources section and a larger disciplinary oriented section All sources are annotated A new edition is sorely needed since the last edition was published nine years ago The previous editions have been successfully used in research libraries worldwide since 1999 and it has been used to teach several African studies research courses The book provides an orientation for researching almost any topic in the arts humanities and social sciences concerning the continent of Africa and all of its countries and ethnic groups The first part explains and lists portals databases bibliographies indexes guides encyclopedias country sources biography primary sources government publications and statistics The second part presents 16 subject oriented chapters mostly in the arts humanities and social sciences from agriculture and food security to women studies It covers sources that broadly cover the continent or in some cases only North Africa and the Middle East It generally excludes sources limited to one country or region of Africa except for North Africa because of the nature of the literature One third of the sources in this edition are new and nearly half of them are available in electronic format There are author title and subject indexes This unique work is intended for students teachers librarians and researchers It likely will be used most by reference librarians and teachers for students in high school through graduate studies It will also be used independently by undergraduate and graduate students It can be used to answer simple reference questions provide the resources for an undergraduate paper or for comprehensive work by advanced students and researchers
