Fraga,2016-04-15 By 1870 the sugar plantations of the Rec ncavo region in Bahia Brazil held at least seventy thousand slaves making it one of the largest and most enduring slave societies in the Americas In this new translation of Crossroads of Freedom which won the 2011 Clarence H Haring Prize for the Most Outstanding Book on Latin American History Walter Fraga charts these slaves daily lives and recounts their struggle to make a future for themselves following slavery s abolition in 1888 Through painstaking archival research he illuminates the hopes difficulties opportunities and setbacks of ex slaves and plantation owners alike as they adjusted to their postabolition environment Breaking new ground in Brazilian historiography Fraga does not see an abrupt shift with slavery s abolition rather he describes a period of continuous change in which the strategies customs and identities that slaves built under slavery allowed them to navigate their newfound freedom Fraga s analysis of how Rec ncavo s residents came to define freedom and slavery more accurately describes this seminal period in Brazilian history while clarifying how slavery and freedom are understood in the present Slave Law and the Politics of Resistance in the Early Atlantic World Edward B. Rugemer,2018-11-12 Edward Rugemer s comparative history spanning 200 years reveals the political dynamic between slaves resistance and slaveholders power in two prosperous slave economies Jamaica and South Carolina This struggle led to the abolition of slavery through a law of British Parliament in one

The Message of Isaiah 40-55 John Goldingay, 2005-10-27 The Message of Isaiah 40-55 traces the argument of Isaiah 40-55 to show how the chapters bring a message of encouragement and challenge about God's intention to restore the Judean community some of whose members are in exile in Babylon others living in the city of Jerusalem that has lain devastated since it fell to the Babylonians in 587 The chapters hold before this community's eyes a vision of the nature of its God as the powerful creator and the loving restorer In the course of following the argument the reader becomes aware that the chapters have to deal with their audience's mysterious resistance to their message It cannot give God the kind of response the message needs and deserves nor can it fulfil the role as God's servant that is designed for it God nevertheless remains committed to it The prophet eventually becomes aware of a distinctive personal calling to embody that response until the people are ready to do so It is the prophet's willingness to do this notwithstanding the suffering it brings that embodies the kind of ministry that needs to be exercised to them so that they may be brought back to God and find a restoration of spirit as well as a physical restoration Votes & Proceedings New South Wales.
