Turning Jessica J. Lee, 2017-05-02 Longlisted for the 2018 Frank Hegyi Award for Emerging Authors Jessica J. Lee is a writer of rare and exhilarating grace In Turning she sounds the depths of lakes and her own life never flinching from darkness surfacing to fresh understandings of her place in the welter of natural and human history A beautiful moody bracing debut Kate Harris award winning author of Lands of Lost Borders Through the heat of summer to the frozen depths of winter Lee traces her journey swimming through 52 lakes in a single year swimming through fear and heartbreak to find her place in the world Jessica J. Lee swims through all four seasons and especially loves the winter I long for the ice The sharp cut of freezing water on my feet The immeasurable black of the lake at its coldest Swimming then means cold and pain and elation At the age of twenty eight Jessica who grew up in Canada and lived in England finds herself in Berlin Alone Lonely with lowered spirits thanks to some family history and a broken heart she is there ostensibly to write a thesis And though that is what she does daily what increasingly occupies her is swimming So she makes a decision that she believes will win her back her confidence and independence she will swim fifty two of the lakes around Berlin no matter what the weather or season She is aware that this particular landscape is not without its own ghosts and history This is the story of a beautiful obsession of the thrill of a still turquoise lake of cracking the ice before submerging of floating under blue skies of tangled weeds and murkiness of cool fresh spring swimming of facing past fears of near drowning and of breaking free When she completes her year of swimming Jessica finds she has new strength and she has also found friends and has gained some understanding of how the landscape both haunts and holds us This book is for everyone who loves swimming who wishes they could push themselves beyond caution who understands the deep pleasure of using the body's strength who knows what it is to abandon all thought and float home to the surface
