Health Care Financing Review ,1986 Community Resources for Older Adults Robbyn R. Wacker,Karen A. Roberto,2018-06-13 Community Resources for Older Adults provides comprehensive up to date information on programs services and policies pertaining to older adults Authors Robbyn R Wacker and Karen A Roberto build reader awareness of programs and discuss how to better understand help seeking behavior as well as explain ways to take advantage of the resources available to older adults The substantially revised Fifth Edition includes new topics and updated research tables and figures to help answer key questions about the evolution and utilization of programs for older adults and the challenges that service providers face Community Care Demonstrations ,1987 The Heart of Long Term Care Rosalie A. Kane,Robert L. Kane,Richard C. Ladd,1998 Long term care in the United States has taken the nursing home as its benchmark but the monetary social and psychological costs of nursing home care are all too high This book challenges the current dominance of nursing homes as the principal institution of long term care It offers a series of alternative models where both services and housing can be provided in a way that allows long term consumers to enjoy dignified normal lifestyles It addresses the political and economic consequences of making this decision The authors start with the premise that long term care is designed to assist people who lack the capacity to function fully independently They argue that no disabled person of any age should be required to forsake his her humanity in exchange for care The book rejects the artificial dichotomy between social and medical care asserting that both play important roles in psychological and physical well being of long term care patients The authors consider the need for competent and compassionate medicine and discuss the methods for improving both its coordination of care and its effectiveness The book redefines the meaning of safety and protection in long term care and how this goal can be accomplished without sacrificing quality of living As the new millennium and the aging of baby boomers approaches more creative approaches to providing better long term care are required This volume outlines a useful framework for the provision of effective and humane community based programs that are both feasible and affordable It will be an invaluable guide for geriatricians public health professionals family physicians nurses and others who care for elderly patients A Systematic Comparison of Community Care Demonstrations Peter Kemper,1987 Reprint - Institute for Research on Poverty University of Wisconsin. Institute for Research on Poverty, Community-Based Systems of Long-Term Care Rick T. Zawadski,2014-04-23 An enlightening review of the successes and failures of several federally funded community based projects that offered elderly persons an alternative to nursing home care Policymakers caregivers and students of public administration and gerontology must read this valuable book Research Activities ,1994

Bridging the Family Care Gap Joseph E. Gaugler,2021-01-09 Bridging the Family Care Gap explores expected future shortages of family caregivers of older persons and identifies potential solutions The book examines the sustainability and availability of care management models and whether they can be effectively scaled up to meet community needs It identifies newly emerging policy initiatives at local state and federal levels The book addresses the state of family caregiving science dissemination and implementation of promising programs and supports technological innovations and other strategies to offset the family care gap This edited volume also explores lay healthcare workers as guides interpreters and advocates in healthcare systems that provide continuity of contact for family caregivers Details threats to family caregiving sociodemographic chronic disease and socioeconomic challenges Presents solutions to the caregiving gap in a systematic synthesized manner Addresses the intersection of family caregiving and technology Discusses chronic disease management to offset and reduce the need for family caregiving Describes models of caregiver support in work settings Reimagines the delivery of long term services and supports with novel initiatives Medical Care Review ,1990 The Clinical Care of the Aged Person David G. Satin,1994-03-03 As the population of aged people increases throughout the world the need for comprehensive integrated geriatric care is rapidly becoming a high priority Developed from an education program in clinical geriatrics offered through the Division on Aging of the Harvard Medical School this authoritative text provides broad interdisciplinary coverage of geriatric health care The book incorporates the theory and skill needed for many disciplines to work together effectively It integrates the various topics covered by way of section introductions cross references within chapters a case study and case conference and an introductory chapter of discussions among a panel of aged people With contributions from a wide range of experts this book teaches an interdisciplinary perspective on the aged and their health care and examines the working relationships among the many professionals providing care for the aged Handbook of Long-Term Care Administration and Policy Cynthia Massie Mara,Laura Olson,2008-03-27 Attitudes toward long term care contain a strong residue of negativity in today s society and current problems with the system augment such perceptions Unless dealt with now this will only get worse as the 85 and older crowd is the fastest growing part of the population and the first wave of Baby Boomers is approaching 60 Exploring and delineate Health Care of the Elderly Marilyn D. Petersen,Diana L. White,1989-03 The literature focusing on major barriers to health care of the elderly is critically reviewed in this book Each chapter focuses on a specific problem examining in depth the existing information on a particular area of concern Following an explicit and rigorous methodology known as information synthesis contributors examine three categories of issues elements organization and delivery services in the long term care system social support programmes for the elderly and clinical care issues and physician education The PSRO and the Nursing Home: Ten demonstration projects in PSRO long-term care review Rand Corporation,1979 Views and Estimates of Committees of the House (together with Supplemental and Minority Views) on the Congressional Budget for Fiscal Year ... United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Budget,2014 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 A Research Perspective Nan Li,2020-08-01 All educators in teacher education want to know what factors contribute to the academic success of undergraduate education majors or pre service teachers Teacher educators of eight universities across the state of South Carolina were determined to find out This compilation is a result of their inquiry The conclusions of this book are drawn from the contributors and each chapter helps expand teacher educator readers understanding and informs their practice as they work with initial certification students in educator preparation A Research Perspective promotes the academic success of pre service teachers by exploring common research questions posed to education majors of the eight universities in South Carolina Ranging from historically Black to predominately White from private to public universities across the state these institutions serve a diverse body of students who described some insightful contributing factors and challenges to their success The case scenario begins each chapter that provides contextual snapshots of the myriad choices and obstacles faced by pre service teachers the research narratives offer insightful analysis for teacher educators Though written from the perspective of South Carolina the lessons learned and recommendations for teacher education are relevant to any state This is a must read for all teacher educators interested in student success This book is most interesting to members of teacher education organizations especially the Association of Teacher Educators ATE and its 41 state and regional affiliates including South Carolina Association of Teacher Educators SCATE and Southeast Regional Association of Teacher Educators SRATE It also has wide appeal to members of other professional organizations such as National Association for Multicultural Education NAME and American Educational Research Association AERA Finally it s a good choice for professional learning communities of district personnel and classroom teachers since it provides insights that will strengthen mentoring and support systems provided to student teachers
