What if the Blue Fairy wasn't supposed to help Pinocchio This New York Times best selling series twists another Disney classic into a harrowing story in which the Blue Fairy defies fairy law setting off a dramatic chain of events

Star light star bright first star I see tonight So begins the wish that changes everything for Geppetto for the Blue Fairy and for a little puppet named Pinocchio

The Blue Fairy isn't supposed to grant wishes in the small village of Pariva but something about this one awakens some long buried flicker within Perhaps it's the hope she senses beneath the old man's loneliness Or maybe it's the fact that long ago before she was the Blue Fairy she was a young woman named Chiara from this very village one with a simple wish to help others find happiness

Her sister Ilaria always teased her for this for Ilaria had big dreams to leave their sleepy village and become a world renowned opera singer The two were close despite their differences While Ilaria would have given anything to have a fairy grant her wish Chiara didn't believe in the lore for which their village was famous

Forty years later Chiara now the Blue Fairy defies the rules of magic to help an old friend But she's discovered by the Scarlet Fairy formerly Ilaria who amid a decades long grudge holds the transgression against her sister They decide to settle things through a good old fashioned bet with Pinocchio and Geppetto's fate hanging in the balance Will the sisters find a way back to one another Or is this like many matters of the heart a gamble that comes with strings
