Look Both Ways Jacquelyn Mitchard, 2009-04-02 In the second book of the Midnight Twins trilogy Meredith and Mallory Brynn are finally coming to terms with their special gifts Meredith to see into the past Mallory to see into the future But they never expect that their powers will reveal danger so close to home Mallory must help her best friend Eden find the strength to defy her destiny as a shape shifter before Eden gets hurt or hurts somebody else And Merry has her own friends to worry about when her visions reveal trouble brewing on the cheerleading squad in the form of Kim Jellico Mallory and Meredith must join together to rescue their friends before it s too late The Collected Poems of Miriam Waddington Miriam

Waddington, 2014-05-08 This anthology brings together for the first time the complete published works of Jewish Canadian poet Miriam Waddington and features a rare selection of previously unpublished poems New York Memories: Stories From Another Time and Place Dante Santacroce, 2018-08-07 A collection of short stories about a boy growing up on the streets of New York City in the 1930 s into the 1940 s and how World War II changed everything Dante Santacroce was born in 1929 in New York City Living on 27th street in his youth was a special yet grim experience Determined to make it out of the city he ignored his counselor s suggestion to attend trade school and instead struggled hard to get a high school degree Despite his average grades as luck would have it he applied to Georgia Tech University in Atlanta for the winter quarter and because of the many freshman drop outs he was accepted In addition to being an architect Dante was the director of the Underground Theatre in Atlanta for 44 years Despite his professional success deep inside he has continued to be that little boy from the streets of New York City always wondering why he was lucky enough to make it out After Survival Paul

Robinson, 1977 A bibliography of print and non print Canadian materials suitable for school use Twenty five subjects are covered with suggestions for course content and teaching approach Canadian Theatre Review, 1975 Secrets of an Old Typewriter: Stories from a Smart and Sassy Small Town Girl Susie Duncan Sexton, 2011-08-29 Susie Duncan Sexton has lived her entire life in a small town indeed in the same house where she grew up As an adult she taught at the same grammar school that she attended as a child and many of the relationships she cultivated while growing up including her marriage have endured over the years Always one to document the present and offer her sometimes unorthodox ideas and opinions Susie Duncan Sexton has tickled the keys of her trusty old typewriter for nearly five decades and now that venerable machine is ready to reveal its secrets On Access in Applied Theatre and Drama Education Colette Conroy, Adelina Ong, Dirk J.

Rodricks, 2020-06-09 This book explores and interrogates access and diversity in applied theatre and drama education Access is persistently framed as a strategy to share power and to extend equality but in the context of current and recent power struggles it is also seen as a discourse that reinforces marginalisation and exclusion The political bind of access is also a conceptual problem It is impossible to refuse to engage in strategies to extend access to institutions representations buildings education discourse etc We cannot oppose access or strategies for access without reinforcing marginalisation and exclusion We can't not want access for ourselves or for others However we are then in danger of remaining immersed in a distribution of power that reinforces and naturalises inequality as difference For applied theatre and drama education the act of creating teaching and learning is intrinsically connected to choice along with the agency and capacity to choose What is less clear and what still interests us is how the distribution of power and representation creates the schema for an analysis of access and diversity This book was originally published as a special issue of Research in Drama Education The Journal of Applied Theatre and Performance

An Army of Stories Roger Mason, 2015-06-23 Private First Class R was an excellent soldier so it was unlike him to be late When he came in a few minutes later I could see by the grim look on his face that something was terribly wrong He immediately began to cry and tell me that his wife had miscarried the child they had so badly wanted I had never seen anyone cry as much as he did that morning and one box of tissues simply was not enough After a while the front of his uniform was soaked from his many tears and I felt horrible seeing him suffer It was one of those times when I would have moved Heaven and Earth if I could have but I could not It humbled me because I wanted to order someone to do something to fix the problem but this time it would not be that simple I had always taken pride in looking out for the welfare of the soldiers in my charge but this time was different I knew I was not a miracle worker but I felt I had let him down because as much as I wanted to I did not have the power to bring back his baby It was the worst day of my Army career because a good soldier who looked up to me for wisdom and guidance was in peril and there was nothing I could do I felt like a weakened Superman hopelessly dragging his feet through a field of Kryptonite because there I was with all my rank and power that the Army had entrusted in me but I was useless to him

Domesticated Wild Things, and Other Stories Xhenet Aliu, 2020-02-17 Just down the highway from Connecticut's Gold Coast is the state's rusty underbelly the wretched used up sort of place where you might find Xhenet Aliu's Domesticated Wild Things the reluctant mothers delinquent dads and not quite feral children yet dreamers all These are the children of immigrants who found boarded up brass mills instead of the gilded streets of America they're the teenaged girls raised in the fluorescent glow of Greek diners the middle aged men with pump trucks and teratomas These are people who have fled or who should have And if they are indeed familiar it is because Aliu writes what is real whether we ourselves her readers have seen it up close or not And her stories make sense in a way that matters A young mother buys into a real estate investment seminar offered on an infomercial only to be put back into her place by a bully in foreclosure A closeted wrestler befriends a latchkey seven year old neighbor who harbors secrets of her own A YMCA counselor tries to reclaim shoes stolen by a troubled young camper What they share is a biting humor an eye for the absurd and fumbling attempts at human connection all rendered irresistible and as moving as they are amusing by a writer whose work is at once edgy and endearing and prize winning for reasons any reader can appreciate

Hope,2025-06-12 To date mourning has not featured prominently in studies of ancient Roman society and this book redresses this by presenting a comprehensive analysis of who mourners were and what mourners did as well as investigating the social cultural and ritual significance of mourning It brings together varied evidence ranging from literature and art to epigraphy which helps to illustrate the rituals of mourning Valerie M Hope addresses fundamental questions about how mourning was expressed displayed performed and experienced via the body and in turn what mourning can reveal about Roman society In previous literature on the topic roles played by mourners in funeral rituals and commemorative acts may be acknowledged but there has been little engagement with the varied emotional and physical behaviours of mourners When mourning has been considered the emphasis has predominantly fallen on gender and specific literary genres There have hitherto been few attempts to unite the diverse evidence for Roman mourning to consider different literary genres simultaneously or to evaluate how mourning was presented through material culture The evaluation of social expectations legal regulations and idealised roles across a diverse evidence base and time frame make this volume the first full and systematic study of mourning in the Roman world New Developments in Expressive Arts Therapy Stephen K. Levine, Ellen G. Levine,2017-06-21 With contributions from well known international arts therapists this collection considers the development and expansion of the field of expressive arts It covers new theoretical concepts and practice introduced in recent years and reflects on their relevance to the fields of therapy education research and social and ecological change

Look Both Ways Theatre Experiences: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Look Both Ways Theatre Experiences : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
