Every November the anniversary of Lev's loss aligns with the churn of the election cycle. A decade later we find Mirsky in the heart of a different crisis supervising COVID vaccine distribution in the polarized political climate of Austin, Texas. In an Addendum she turns again to themes of grief and healing this time on a societal scale as she reckons with the tenth anniversary of Lev's passing. Through her unextraordinary story of extraordinary loss, Mirsky offers proof that there is an afterward to grief.

challenging and accessible something to mull over. Life is rhythmized with spiritual seasons, each providing its own challenges and joys, each calling for its own medicine. Souls, not just bodies, need to be able to adapt, refresh, reboot, and readjust to changing climates. As we move through the seasons of life, may God's healing power enter to bring us what we need. This collection of meditations and reflective questions is designed to adjust with your needs for the season you are in. With one meditation per week, this book can be read and enjoyed topically or in the printed order. The product of a rare author, someone who is both as deeply grounded in Christian tradition as one can imagine but at the same time has the profound ability to touch others with insights of practical depth. The Rt. Rev. Stacy Sauls, Bishop of the Episcopal Church.
