Lords Prayer Through North African Eyes A Window Into Early Christianity:

The Lord's Prayer Through North African Eyes Michael Joseph Brown, 2004-11-22 Demonstrates the importance of social location and cultural presuppositions in the interpretation of cultic texts and acts Early Christian Discourses on Jesus' Prayer at Gethsemane Karl Olav Sandnes, 2015-12-22 From early on Christians passed down the account of Jesus's agony at the prospect of his own death and his prayer that the cup should pass from him Gethsemane Yet this is a troublesome aspect of Christian tradition Jesus was committed to his death but as it approached he prayed for his escape even as he submitted himself to God's will Ancient critics mocked Jesus and his followers for the events at Gethsemane The hero failed to meet the cultural standards for noble death and masculinity As such this story calls for further reflection and interpretation The present book unfolds discourses from the earliest centuries of Christianity to determine what strategies were developed to come to terms with Gethsemane Dictionary of Theologians Jonathan Hill, 2010-03-25 An exhaustive guide to every significant Christian theologian who lived from the first century to 1308 the year in which John Duns Scotus died The dictionary encompasses the Catholic Orthodox Nestorian and Monophysite traditions including information not previously available in English Thoroughly indexed the dictionary incorporates common variants of names and concepts which will help and direct the reader The main criterion for inclusion has been contribution to the development of Christian theology Sub criteria by which that is measured include above all originality and influence on later figures With over 290 entries the dictionary provides a handy summary of theologians' lives and writings together with recent scholarship as well as an up to date definitive bibliography listing primary texts translations and secondary literature in the major western European languages Useful for all levels of academia no other text matches the depth of the dictionary's bibliographies The unprecedented thoroughness of Hill's compilation provides an essential resource for studies at all levels on such a large and varied range of Church thinkers The Moral World of James James Riley Strange, 2010 In The Moral World of James James Riley Strange compares the moral system in the Epistle of James with other Greco Roman and Judaic texts The author of the epistle prescribed moral practices in a world in which other people both pagan and Jewish had long been expressing similar concerns and more would continue to take up the task centuries after Christianity was well established in the Roman Empire In this fresh and thick analysis Strange's systemic comparison of texts among them works of Plato Plutarch Epictetus and Aelius Aristides as well as Greek Magical Papyri tractates of the Mishnah and the Community Rule of the Dead Sea Scrolls reveals how James's vision of a distinctive way of community life was both part of and distinct from the moral and religious systems among which it emerged The Oxford Handbook of Early Christian Studies Susan Ashbrook Harvey, David G. Hunter, 2008-09-05 The Oxford Handbook of Early Christian Studies responds to and celebrates the explosion of research in this interdisciplinary field over recent decades As a one volume reference work it provides an introduction to the academic study of early Christianity c 100 600 AD and examines the vast geographical area impacted by the early church in western and eastern late antiquity It is thematically arranged to encompass history literature thought practices and material culture It contains authoritative and up to date surveys of current thinking and research in the various sub specialties of early Christian studies written by leading figures in the discipline The essays orientate readers to a given topic as well as to the trajectory of research developments over the past 30 50 years within the scholarship itself Guidance for future research is also given Each essay points the reader towards relevant forms of extant evidence texts documents or examples of material culture as well as to the appropriate research tools available for the area This volume will be useful to advanced undergraduate and post graduate students as well as to specialists in any area who wish to consult a brief review of the state of the question in a particular area or sub specialty of early Christian studies especially one different from their own

Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite, 2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian s writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian s writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian s identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph
