King Alfonso VIII of Castile
Miguel Gómez, Kyle C. Lincoln, Damian J. Smith, 2019-04-02. King Alfonso VIII of Castile. Government, Family and War brings together a diverse group of scholars whose work concerns the reign of Alfonso VIII, 1158-1215. This was a critical period in the history of the Iberian peninsula when the conflict between the Christian north and the Moroccan empire of the Almohads was at its most intense while the political divisions between the five Christian kingdoms reached their high water mark. From his troubled ascension as a child to his victory at Las Navas de Tolosa near the end of his fifty-seven year reign, Alfonso VIII and his kingdom were at the epicenter of many of the most dramatic events of the era.

The Sword and the Cross: Castile-León in the Era of Fernando III, 2020-03-31. This volume provides a series of new perspectives on the political, military and religious history of the reign of Fernando III, king of Castile-León from 1217-1252. The essays collected here address the conquest of al-Andalus and the policies of Fernando III, Christian-Muslim relations in the Peninsula, the creation and curation of royal networks of power, the role of women at the Castilian court and the impact of religious change in Castile-León. Assembling an international group of eleven leading scholars on this period of Iberian history, this volume combines military and religious history with a variety of novel approaches and methodologies to ask new and exciting questions about the reign of Fernando III and his place in medieval European history.
