Acculturating the Shopping Centre Janina Gosseye, Tom Avermaete, 2018-10-16 Acculturating the Shopping Centre examines whether the shopping centre should be qualified as a global architectural type that effortlessly moves across national and cultural borders in the slipstream of neo liberal globalization or should instead be understood as a geographically and temporally bound expression of negotiations between mall developers representatives of a global logic of capitalist accumulation on the one hand and local actors architects governments citizens on the other It explores how the shopping centre adapts to new cultural contexts and questions whether this commercial type has the capacity to disrupt or even amend the conditions that it encounters Including more than 50 illustrations this book considers the evolving architecture of shopping centres It would be beneficial to academics and students across a number of areas such as architecture urban design cultural geography and sociology Más Alla del Homo Sapiens Mariu Suarez, 2001-01-11 A quest for a personal and collective utopia The story of man's salvation through knowledge Una búsqueda de la utopía personal colectiva La historia de la salvación del hombre a través del conocimiento Los Angeles Financier, 1905 1956
