Creating Values in Life

Ashok Gulla, 2010-04 Unfortunately very few people these days talk about real values in life What we stand for in life and are we living up to these values are worth pondering Are our aspirations in tune with the real purpose of life It is the values that remind us often what to aspire in life Most people value life and its achievements from the perspective of wealth and richness but do not recognize trust honesty and contentment as forward looking attributes that help in overall satisfaction Giving importance to external growth leaving behind inner development often leads to unbalance in life devoid of overall satisfaction Much of the troubles in this world are that true values of life have narrowed down skewed ignored and misunderstood This

Bush's War Jim A. Kuypers, 2006-10-10 Immediately after the attacks of September 11 2001 Americans looked to President Bush for words of leadership In his most formal reply of the day he said Today our fellow citizens our way of life our very freedom came under attack in a series of deliberate and deadly terrorist acts The victims were in airplanes or in their offices secretaries businessmen and women military and federal workers moms and dads friends and neighbors Thousands of lives were suddenly ended by evil despicable acts of terror The stark tone of Bush's speech suggested the promise of more words to come from the president and it is these words that Bush's War addresses While many books have offered a take on the attacks of 9/11 and their impact upon American society one area has been comparatively ignored presidential justifications for war in the age of terrorism Specifically what did President Bush say to justify American military actions in the post-9/11 world And how did the public hear what he said especially as it was filtered through the news media The eloquent and thoughtful Bush's War shows how public perception of what the president says is shaped by media bias Jim A. Kuypers compares Bush's statements with press coverage arguing that the nature of American public knowledge concerning our role in the world has been changed not by 9 11 but by the subsequent argumentative back and forth between Bush and the press
