Lost Opportunity What Has Made Economic Reform In Russia So Difficult:

Lost Opportunity Marshall I. Goldman, 1996 The Rise and Fall of Privatization in the Russian Oil Industry L. Sim, 2008-10-24 A study of the actors and institutions that shaped decision making on privatization in the Russian oil industry between 1992 and 2006 The book analyses the origins of privatization as a policy on a macro industry wide level as well as presenting three in depth case studies of privatization on a company level Lost Opportunity Marshall I. Goldman, 1996 Undaunted by the potholed road the Russians are traveling towards a market economy Marshall Goldman here explains not only what has happened under Boris Yeltsin but also what is likely to happen next in the most enigmatic nation in the world

Russia's Capitalist Revolution Anders Åslund, 2007 A Second Exodus Murray Friedman, 1999 A first time chronicle of the US Soviet Jewry Movement Democracy Versus Modernization Vladislav Leonidovich Inozemtsev, Piotr Dutkiewicz, 2013 A major issue for Russia is how far democratisation should be prioritised or whether the modernization of Russia might not prosper better by Russia focusing directly on modernization and not worrying too much about democracy This book explores a wide range of aspects of this important question Inside the Soviet Alternate Universe Dick Combs, 2010-11 Reappraises the end of the Cold War and the collapse of the Soviet Union based on the author's 35 year career as a specialist in Soviet and post Soviet affairs Explores the psychological universe of Soviet rulers to clarify the nature of Mikhail Gorbachev's reforms Provided by publisher Russian Path Dependence Stefan Hedlund, 2005-01-23 Russia's transition to a market economy has been tortuous to say the least However this book argues that the arguments and counter arguments that pitch shock therapy against gradualism are wide of the mark and quite pointless Indeed the reasons for the warped outcomes can actually be traced back through the long sweep of Russian history Decisions made in the distant past can fully influence policy making in the present Hedlund's thesis can like this be seen as influenced by the path dependency theories of Paul David among others The March to Capitalism in the Transition Countries Irving S. Michelman, 2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this book analyses and reconsiders one of the great economic dramas of Western history the march to capitalism in Russia Hungary Poland and the Czech Republic The period is from 1989 after the fall of the Berlin Wall when the liberated countries rushed headlong into democracy and capitalism Special emphasis is on the role often misunderstood played by the Western dominated aid agencies the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank They were called in while the Western countries dawdled and made empty promises They basically financed and guided the transition their own funds amounting to 50 billion while issuing free market strictures in the process This reflected the supremacy of such ideology in the Thatcher Reagan era Russia in its agony offers a laboratory for the conflicting claims of free market theory against a more pragmatic experimental approach China's hybrid capitalism is also analyzed and compared

Toward Pro-poor Policies Bertil Tungodden, Nicholas Herbert Stern, Nicholas Stern, Ivar Kolstad, 2004 This annual conference has become a key event in Europe for the discussion of development issues It is a unique platform for many of the world's finest development thinkers and experienced policymakers to present their perspectives ideas and to challenge researchers and senior staff of the World Bank and other organizations with their views These papers look at a number of compelling issues surrounding the topic of development

How Capitalism Was Built Anders Aslund, 2013 Anders Aslund is known to make bold predictions that initially arouse controversy but soon become common wisdom In Gorbachev's Struggle for Economic Reform 1989 he foresaw the collapse of the Soviet political and economic system After Russia's financial crisis of 1998 observers declared the market economic experiment a failure Aslund foresaw market economic success Building Capitalism 2002 In How Capitalism Was Built 2nd Edition he asks and answers for the twenty one countries he investigates Why did communism collapse Why did Russia not choose gradual reforms like China did Wherein lies the relative success of postcommunist transformation How did the oligarchs arise and decline vis vis authoritarian leaders Anyone who wants to understand the often confusing postcommunist dramas and obtain an early insight into the future will find this intellectually stimulating book useful This edition includes updates to each chapter and new chapters on the impact of the global financial crisis and the European Union

Understanding Russian Politics Stephen White, 2011-03-31 A fresh and compelling interpretation of Russian politics by a leading authority this textbook focuses on political developments in the world's largest country under Putin and Medvedev Using a wealth of primary sources it covers economic social and foreign policy and the system of politics that has developed in recent years Opposing arguments are presented and students are encouraged to reach their own judgements on key events and issues such as privatisation and corruption This textbook tackles timely topics such as gender and inequality issues organised religion the economic crisis and Russia's place in the international community It uses numerous examples to place this powerful and richly endowed country in context with a focus on the place of ordinary people which shows how policy is translated to Russians everyday lives

Invisible Hands, Russian Experience, and Social Science Stefan Hedlund, 2011-06-20 This book investigates cases in which national and international activities have gone massively wrong entailing seriously negative consequences and in which the sophisticated analytical models of social science have ceased to be helpful Illustrations range from the global financial crisis to the failure to achieve speedy systemic change in the former Soviet Union and the failure to achieve development in the Third World The analysis uses as a backdrop long term Russian history and short term Russian encounters with unrestrained capitalism to develop a framework that is based in the so called new institutionalism Understanding the causes of systemic failure is shown to require an approach that spans across the increasingly specialized subdisciplines of modern social science Demonstrating that increasing theoretical sophistication has been bought at the price of a loss of perspective and the need for sensitivity to the role of cultural and historical specificity the book pleads the case for a new departure in seeking to model the motives for human action

The Cambridge History of Russia: Volume 3, The Twentieth Century Maureen Perrie, Ronald Grigor Suny, 2006-11-02 A major history of twentieth century Russia by leading scholars in the field

Russia's Market Economy

Stefan Hedlund,2002-11-01 Russia's Market Economy is a seminal account of Russia's transition to the market its tortuous development as a fledgling market economy through the 1990s right through to its spectacular collapse in August 1998 Rather than beginning with the economic collapse the book traces the historical mismanagement of Russian wealth through to the Soviet command economy and on to Gorbachev Stefan Hedlund finally discusses what lessons should be learned from the damage inflicted on the Russian economy as well as its social legal and political infrastructure by the race of reform

Russia's International Relations in the Twentieth Century Alastair Kocho-Williams,2013-01-04 Russia has long been a major player in the international relations arena but only by examining the whole century can Russian foreign policy be properly understood and the key questions as to the impact of war of revolution of collapse the emergence of the Cold War and Russia's post Soviet development be addressed Surveying the whole of the twentieth century in an accessible and clear manner Russia's International Relations in the Twentieth Century provides an overview and narrative with analysis that will serve as an introduction and resource for students of Russian foreign policy in the period and those who seek to understand the development of modern Russia in an international context The volume includes an analysis of the major themes which surrounded Russia's position in world affairs as one of the European Great Powers before the First World War the impact of Revolution and the emergence of Soviet foreign policy with its dual aims of normalization and world revolution the changes wrought to the international order by the rise of Nazi Germany and by the Second World War the origins and development of the Cold War the end of the Cold War and the Soviet collapse how Russia has rebuilt itself as an international power in the post Soviet era An essential resource for students of Russian history and International policy

The Transition from Communism: a Diagrammatic Exposition of Ostacles to the Demand for the Rule of Law, Capital, Coercion, and Postcommunist States Gerald M. Easter,2012-09-18 The postcommunist transitions produced two very different types of states The contractual state is associated with the countries of Eastern Europe which moved toward democratic regimes consensual relations with society and clear boundaries between political power and economic wealth The predatory state is associated with the successors to the USSR which instead developed authoritarian regimes coercive relations with society and poorly defined boundaries between the political and economic realms In Capital Coercion and Postcommunist States Gerald M Easter shows how the cumulative result of the many battles between state coercion and societal capital over taxation gave rise to these distinctive transition outcomes Easter's fiscal sociology of the postcommunist state highlights the interconnected paths that led from the fiscal crisis of the old regime through the revenue bargains of transitional tax regimes to the eventual reconfiguration of state society relations His focused comparison of Poland and Russia exemplifies postcommunism's divergent institutional forms The Polish case shows how conflicts over taxation influenced the emergence of a rule of law contractual state social market capitalism and civil society The Russian case reveals how revenue imperatives reinforced the emergence of a rule by law predatory state concessions style capitalism and dependent society

Human

Rights in Russia Jonathan Weiler, 2004 Weiler argues that the processes associated with political and economic reform have in important instances diminished human rights in post Soviet Russia

Globalisation, Transition and Development in China Rui Huaichuan, 2004-06-02 Based on extensive original research Globalisation Transition and Development in China explains China's development strategy and its underlying forces and the success of this strategy It examines China's gradualist approach which emphasizes development first and regards transition and globalization as secondary enacting liberalization of domestic markets and integration into the world economy in a paced way avoiding dramatic changes which might impede or even reverse development and argues that this approach is broadly correct It considers China's failures including the failure to build large globally competitive corporations despite the intention to do this and shows how China's economic strategy has been implemented in detail with a case study of the large and important coal industry
