career as university professor and public figure to his death while on a mission to reconcile a feuding princely family Following parts of this narrative come interviews with friends and foes of his time taken from a variety of sixteenth century sources that present this dominating reformer and the passions that possessed both those who found him to be God's end time prophet and those who hated all that he stood for because they believed it was destroying their world

Reading the Bible with Richard Hooker Daniel Eppley, 2016-03-01 Many of the divisions facing Christians today include disagreements over the interpretation of Scripture These disagreements arise not only regarding the meaning of particular biblical passages but also involve different approaches to determining how the meaning of Scripture is discerned Such disagreement over the interpretation of Scripture is nothing new Insights available from past efforts to resolve disputes over interpretation can be a valuable resource for modern efforts to facilitate intra Christian dialogue This study elucidates the biblical hermeneutic championed by Richard Hooker a formative figure of the Anglican tradition to recommend it as a resource for modern Christians In his approach to interpreting scripture Hooker recognizes the importance of both rational reflection and inspired insight while also treading a middle path that balances the respect due to interpretive authorities against the responsibilities of the individual conscience These and other elements of Hooker's hermeneutic make it a valuable resource for those who seek to promote dialogue and reconciliation in a divided church

Luther's Rome, Rome's Luther Carl P. E. Springer,2021 This book offers a fresh reevaluation of Martin Luther's tempestuous relationship with Rome the city he visited as a young Augustinian friar and

The Protestant Church in China is growing very fast. However, the role of the Church in society is still fragile and marginal. The Church needs a strong ethical and structural development. This study analyses the theological, ethical and ecclesiological heritage of the Reformation and it shows how this can build the foundation for the future of the Church in China. Four models serve as orientation: the Reformers Luther and Calvin and the theologians Bonhoeffer and Barth in the 20th century with their vision of Christian faith and a humane society. The critical analysis of the missionary heritage since the 19th century shows its contribution for the acceptance of the tradition of the Reformation for the growing Church in China. The author combines this theological and ethical perspective with the inculturation in the strong ethical tradition of the Chinese culture. He proposes the encounter between the spirituality of the Western culture and that of the traditional culture of China through the relationship with Confucianism. The book also offers elements for the dialogue around modern values such as human rights and civil society. In this dialogue, Chinese Protestantism can play more and more an important role.
