Buch, 2009-08-01 Drawing on hundreds of operas singspiels ballets and plays with supernatural themes Magic Flutes and Enchanted Forests argues that the tension between fantasy and Enlightenment era rationality shaped some of the most important works of eighteenth century musical theater and profoundly influenced how audiences and critics responded to them David J Buch reveals that despite and perhaps even because of their fundamental irrationality fantastic and exotic themes acquired extraordinary force and popularity during the period pervading theatrical works with music in the French German and Italian mainstream Considering prominent compositions by Gluck Rameau and Haydn as well as many seminal contributions by lesser known artists Buch locates the origins of these magical elements in such historical sources as ancient mythology European fairy tales the Arabian Nights and the occult He concludes with a brilliant excavation of the supernatural roots of Mozart's The Magic Flute and Don Giovanni building a new foundation for our understanding of the magical themes that proliferated in Mozart's wake
