The Cinema of Québec Janis L. Pallister, 1995 Quebecois cinema too long neglected and too long unknown by American viewers and often not appreciated on its own terrain receives its well deserved defense in Janis L Pallister s The Cinema of Quebec Masters in Their Own House The Facts on File Guide to Research Jeff Lenburg, 2014-05-14 The Facts On File Guide to Research is a comprehensive guide to doing thorough and accurate research It includes a detailed listing of available resources and explains general research methods and proper citation of sources An invaluable reference this book helps researchers make use of the many new resources available today Divided into four sections this easy to use guide helps students and general readers prepare for research papers and class studies Step by step guides detailed explanations and valuable appendixes covering style guides such as APA MLA and The Chicago Manual of Style combine to create an incredibly authoritative accessible reference The Films of Jean Seberg Michael Coates-Smith, Garry McGee, 2014-01-10 Here is the first comprehensive examination of the international film career of Iowa born actress Jean Seberg 1938 1979 Bursting onto the scene as star of Otto Preminger s controversial Saint Joan 1957 the 19 year old Seberg encountered great difficulty recovering from the devastating criticism of her performance The turnaround came in 1959 with her brilliant work in Jean Luc Godard s new wave classic A bout de souffle Breathless Though her Hollywood prospects were harmed by subsequent political involvements Seberg continued to work with some of Europe s finest directors Her later films offer a fascinating view of the movie industry in the 1960s and 1970s and of a courageous actress always ready for a new challenge A biographical sketch provides a framework for detailed scrutiny of her 37 films Background information and a critical evaluation is provided for each title A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 2 Hamid Naficy, 2011-09-16 Social history of Iranian cinema that explores cinema s role in creating national identity and contextualizes Iranian cinema within an international arena The Films of Carlos Saura Marvin D'Lugo, 2021-01-12 Spanish filmmaker Carlos Saura who began his career under the censorship of Franco s regime has forged an international reputation for his unique cinematic treatment of emotional and spiritual responses to repressive political conditions In films such as Carmen and El Dorado where reality and fantasy are deliberately fused together Saura reveals the illusions of Franco s mythologized Spain a chaste Catholic and heroic Spain of the Golden Age that tend to isolate Spaniards from the rest of Europe from each other and from their own individuality In this first English language book on Saura Marvin D Lugo looks at the social and artistic forces behind this film auteur s highly personal cinema Tracing Saura s career over three decades D Lugo discusses each work from Hooligans 1959 a realist film about a Madrid street gang member trying to become a bullfighter to The Dark Night 1989 a film dealing with the persecution of the religious reformer St John of the Cross in the late sixteenth century Throughout he argues that Saura s cinematic style results from a highly original response to the political and historical constraints of Spanish culture D Lugo shows how in order to explore the complex cultural politics of Spanishness as it was institutionalized under Franco

Saura frames his narrations through the eyes of characters who question the forces that shape personal and collective identity. Moving beyond the limits of traditional auteur studies, this book addresses the relationship between the filmmaker and the cultural ideology that historically has thwarted and manipulated the expressions of individuality in Spanish society.

The Films of John Cassavetes Raymond Carney, 1994-01-28 Through words and pictures, Cassavetes is shown to have been a deeply thoughtful and self-aware artist and a profound commentator on the American experience.

Saints, Clergy and Other Religious Figures on Film and Television, 1895-2003 Ann C. Paietta, 2015-01-24 The portrayal of clergy, saints, missionaries, monks, and other spiritual leaders dates back to the very beginnings of motion pictures and television. Over the years, filmmakers have portrayed religious figures as heroes and villains, sinners and saints, and nearly everything in between. Through their works, filmmakers have influenced how society viewed these religious figures, and by extension, religion itself. This work details over 900 films and television series made from the 1890s through 2003 in which a religious figure plays a prominent or recurring role or in which a character poses as a religious figure. For each motion picture, full filmographic data are provided, including title, studio, running time, year of release, director, producer, writer, and cast, along with a synopsis focusing on the role of the religious figure. Television series are covered in a separate section. For each show, the entry includes the title under which the show was commonly known, the original broadcast network, the years the show ran, running time, and cast, and a brief discussion of the religious character's role in the overall series. Extensively indexed.
