Magnificent Spinster:

The Magnificent Spinster May Sarton, 2014-12-16 May Sarton's powerful and profound novel of an extraordinary life and of one woman's efforts to preserve the force and vitality of her experiences on the pages of a book For the second time in my life and I am now seventy I am embarking on an effort which may well come to nothing but which has possessed my mind haunts and will not let me sleep From her opening statement Cam the narrator of The Magnificent Spinster declares her grand intentions to write a novel a worthy and important one in celebration of her recently deceased friend and teacher Jane Reid whose dearth of family threatens the memory of her almost tangible greatness And so she writes re creating Jane's childhood adolescence and years as a teacher including the one in which Cam was her student She writes of Jane s irrepressible spirit and the charming letters Jane penned about her adventures and she recounts Jane's growing isolation as she aged which rather than softening her only made her shine brighter Raw warm and beautifully rendered The Magnificent Spinster is a stunning achievement part memoir part epistolary recollection and part novel within a novel about friendship memory and the power of a brilliant soul The Magnificent Spinster May Sarton, 1989-03 The magnificent spinster is Jane Reid a teacher who became not only a revered role model but a dear friend to Cam the narrator of this novel within a novel After Jane's death the accidental discovery of poems written by Cam in her youth to Jane prompts a flood of recollections and frees Cam to imagine in fiction Jane's passionately vibrant life Writing with Intent Margaret Atwood, 2009-04-21 From one of the world's most passionately engaged and acclaimed literary citizens comes Writing with Intent the largest collection to date of Margaret Atwood's nonfiction ranging from 1983 to 2005 Composed of autobiographical essays cultural commentary book reviews and introductory pieces to great works of literature this is the award winning author s first book length nonfiction publication in twenty years Arranged chronologically these writings display the development of Atwood s worldview as the world around her changes Included are the Booker Prize winning author's reviews of books by John Updike Italo Calvino Toni Morrison and others as well as essays in which she remembers herself reading Virginia Woolf's To the Lighthouse at age nineteen and discusses the influence of George Orwell's 1984 on the writing of The Handmaid's Tale Atwood's New York Times Book Review piece that helped make Orhan Pamuk's Snow a bestseller can be found here as well as a look back on a family trip to Afghanistan just before the Soviet invasion and her Letter to America written after September 11 2001 The insightful and memorable pieces in this book serve as a testament to Atwood s career reminding readers why she is one of the most esteemed writers of our time Rumors from the Cauldron Valerie Miner, 2014-08-19 An indispensable collection of essays reflecting on the historical and cultural relevance of feminist movements across the globe In these remarkably far reaching writings author and journalist Valerie Miner delivers a complex and engaging volume of essential reading This book touches on topics ranging from suburban housewives to lesbian identity to feminist thought Miner provides an important perspective on the interrelated concepts of authorship gender identity and social criticism

Included are examinations of the works of Grace Paley Margaret Atwood and May Sarton meditations on writing and reflections on the cultural legacy of feminism Miner s insights are both perspicacious and thought provoking Written with profound passion and knowledge these tracts are of tremendous value to all readers engaged with the politics of equality

The Creative Crone Sylvia Henneberg, 2010 Henneberg shows how these writers offer radically different but richly complementary strategies for breaking the silence surrounding age Rich provides an approach to aging so strongly intertwined with other political issues that its complexity may keep us from immediately identifying age as one of her chief concerns On the other hand Sarton's direct treatment of aging sensitizes us to its importance and helps us see its significance in such writings as Rich's Meanwhile Rich's efforts to politicize age create stimulating contexts for Sarton's work Henneberg explores elements of these writers individual poems that develop themes of aging including imagery and symbol the construction of a persona and the uses of rhythms to reinforce the themes She also includes analyses of their fiction and nonfiction works and draws ideas from age studies by scholars such as Margaret Morganroth Gullette Kathleen Woodward and Thomas Cole From publisher description May Sarton Margot Peters, 2011-05-04 The first biography of May Sarton a brilliant revelation of the life and work of a literary figure who influenced her thousands of readers not only by her novels and poetry but by her life and her writings about it May Sarton's career stretched from 1930 early sonnets published in Poetry magazine to 1995 her journal At Eighty Two She wrote more than twenty novels and twenty five books of poems and journals The acclaimed biographer Margot Peters was given full access to Sarton's letters journals and notes and during five years of research came to know Sarton herself the complex woman and artist She gives us a compelling portrait of Sarton the actress the poet the novelist the feminist the writer who struggled for literary acceptance She shows us beneath Sarton s exhilarating irresistible spirit the needy courtier and seducer the woman whose creativity was propelled by the psychic drama she created in others We watch young May at age two as she is abruptly uprooted from her native Belgium by World War I a child ignored both by her mother who was intent on her own artistic vision and reluctant to cope with a child and by her father obsessed with his academic research We see Sarton as a young girl in America and then later at nineteen choosing a life in the theatre landing a job in Eva Le Gallienne's Civic Repertory and gathering what would become a tight knit coterie of friends and lovers Sarton beginning to write poetry and novels Sarton making friends with Elizabeth Bowen and Julian Huxley Erika and Klaus Mann Virginia Woolf the poet H D charming and enlisting them with her work her vitality her hunger for love driven by her need to conquer among her conquests Bowen Huxley and later his wife Juliette We see her intense friendships with literary pals including Muriel Rukeyser her lover and Louise Bogan Sarton's literary sibling who at once encouraged her and excluded her from a world in which Bogan was a central figure We see Sarton begin to create in the spiritual journals that inspired the devotion of readers the image of a strong independent woman who lived peacefully with solitude an image that contradicted the reality of her neediness loneliness and isolation as she pushed away loved ones with her demands and betrayals A fascinating portrait of one of our major literary figures a book that for the first time reveals the life that she herself kept hidden Mrs. Stevens Hears the Mermaids Singing May Sarton, 2014-07-22 Sarton's most important novel tells the story of a poet in her seventies whose life is retold episodically during an interview with two writers from a literary magazine Hilary Stevens s prolific career includes a provocative novel that shot her into the public consciousness years ago and an oeuvre of poetry that more recently has consigned her to near obscurity Now in the twilight of her life Hilary who is both a feminist and a lesbian is receiving renewed attention for an upcoming collection of poems one that has brought two young reporters to her Cape Cod home As Hilary prepares for the conversation she recalls formative moments both large and small She then embarks on the interview itself a witty and intelligent discussion of her life work and romantic relationships with men and women After the journalists have left Hilary helps a visiting male friend with his anxiety over being gay and imparts wisdom about channeling his own creative passions This ebook features an extended biography of May Sarton Faithful are the Wounds May Sarton, 1955 Set in the academic world of Harvard and Cambridge this acclaimed novel dramatizes the plight of the embattled American liberal in the 1950s Its central character is Edward Cavan a brilliant English professor who commits suicide His death sets off a shock wave among Cavan's friends and changes things for some of them forever Anger May Sarton, 2014-12-16 May Sarton's sharp exploration of how men and women love and how they clash as shown through one tempestuous relationship Ned Fraser has never seen himself as a husband His distinguished job at a Boston bank has kept him satisfied while a string of failed love affairs has concerned him little But no woman has ever affected him the way Anna Lindstrom does A concert singer of immense charm and beauty Anna is possessed of a vibrant presence that stands in stark contrast to Ned's diffidence And yet despite herself she can't help but be drawn to the persistent suitor who plies her with flowers Their courtship is short and intense and the spark that brought them together fuels not only their love but also a needling undercurrent of volatility Her passion and narcissism agitate him while his tempered restraint bores her into resentment Their opposing personalities lead to anger and conflict and ultimately to a crossroads that will either tear their young marriage apart or weave it back together stronger than ever Encounter in April May Sarton, 2014-12-23 The debut work of a literary legend May Sarton's career spanned sixty years and included novels poetry memoirs and even children's books but it was poetry that provided the world's first look at her wondrous talent Encounter in April is a fitting starting point for readers wishing to familiarize themselves with one of the twentieth century s most lyrical and eloquent authors In this anthology Sarton describes womanhood devastatingly and unforgettably deftly matching serene imagery with powerful emotion Her sonnets are to be savored Encounter in April is a thesis statement for a lengthy and profound career and Sarton s talent is readily evident from the beginning The Fur Person May Sarton, 2002 The Fur Person is May Sarton's fictionalized account of her cat Tom Jones's life and adventures prior to making the author's acquaintance Tom starts out as a fiercely independent nameless street cat who follows the ten commandments of the

Gentleman Cat one of which states that A Gentleman Cat allows no constraint of his person not even loving constraint But after several years of wandering from place to place he has grown tired of his vagabond lifestyle and he concludes that there might be some appeal after all in giving up the freedom of life on the streets in exchange for a loving home It will take just the right human companion however to make his transformation from Cat About Town to genuine Fur Person possible Sarton s book is one of the all time favorite stories ever written about the joys and tribulations of sharing one s life with a cat Book A Shower of Summer Days May Sarton, 1995 At long last in early June the Gordons were expected home at Dene s Court the house in Ireland which Violet Dene Gordon had inherited So begins May Sarton s evocative early novel about Violet Gordon's return after thirty years to her childhood home where much had to be settled in one brief summer fateful decisions about a marriage a love affair and a career No influence was more important than the splendid old Dene s Court itself and the memories it held The Single Hound May Sarton, 2014-07-22 In May Sarton's debut novel a mysterious and beloved Belgian poet finds new life when a young Englishman ventures to meet her Published under the pseudonym Jeanne Latour Doro's poetry inspired a generation Her teaching of great literature and philosophy also fired up the imaginations of her young pupils Throughout her adult life Doro s most important relationships have been those with Claire and Annette fellow teachers who have nicknamed themselves the Little Owls and with whom she shares a close knit friendship Despite her full life Doro can thelp but feel that her first sixty three years have been but a prelude to something yet to come The heartbreak of young poet Mark Taylor has stifled his art and well being In love with an older unavailable married woman Mark goes in search of Jean Latour whose poetry he believes could be his salvation But Mark knows nothing of the enigmatic writer s true identity and it is in their unexpected meeting that both poets begin to find a renewed and transformative sense of self This ebook features an extended biography of May Sarton Novels, Novelists, and Readers Mary F. Rogers, 1991-07-03 Focusing on British and American novels Rogers takes a sociological look at the business of literature the book industry and the experiences of novelists and readers Viewing the novel as a vehicle of cultural meaning the author shows how the literary canon overlooks substantial similarities among novels in favor of restrictive codes based on social as well as literary considerations. She emphasizes the kinship between the social sciences and humanities in her analysis by reinvigorating affection for the novel and also establishing its rich cultural significance Endgame May Sarton, 1992 Debilitating illness struck her in the heart and lung energy drained from her body and yet poet May Sarton was able to dictate into a machine to write with her voice Shadow of a Man May Sarton, 2015-08-18 A Harvard grad student falls in love with an older woman in this beautifully written novel set in Paris Francis Chabrier is a 26 year old graduate student still looking for direction when his mother dies The reverberations of her sudden demise are deeply felt within her family circle and in the lives of her friends Francis's stepfather Alan is devastated but Francis only feels angry and adrift Everyone expects him to marry his childhood friend Ann Instead he leaves Boston for Paris where he spent the first 12 years of his life Here in the City of Lights he hopes to find purpose and meaning and Solange Bernard Solange is an old friend of Francis s mother As a boy Francis was captivated by the vivacious French beauty and now he has traveled to France to see if she is as he remembers The woman he meets is no longer young nor is she all that beautiful But when Francis is with her the years between them disappear Soon they are swept into a passionate affair that opens up a world of tantalizing possibility and changes Francis in ways he never imagined A novel about the journey of self discovery Shadow of a Man tells a tender and honest story about first love that will resonate with readers of every age The Poet and the Donkey May Sarton, 1996 Whiffenpoof an arthritic donkey becomes an inspiring distraction for a poet who has lost his muse The Hidden Writer Alexandra Johnson, 1998-04-13 Whom do I tell when I tell a blank page Virginia Woolf's question is one that generations of readers and writers searching to map a creative life have asked of their own diaries No other document quite compares with the intimacies and yearnings the confessions and desires revealed in the pages of a diary Presenting seven portraits of literary and creative lives Alexandra Johnson illuminates the secret world of writers and their diaries and shows how over generations these writers have used the diary to solve a common set of creative and life questions In Sonya Tolstoy's diary we witness the conflict between love and vocation in Katherine Mansfield and Virginia Woolf's friendship the nettle of rivalry among writing equals is revealed and in Alice James s diary begun at age forty the feelings of competition within a creative family are explored The Hidden Writer shows how the diaries of Marjory Fleming Sonya Tolstoy Alice James Katherine Mansfield Virginia Woolf Ana s Nin and May Sarton negotiated the obstacle course of silence ambition envy and fame Destined to become a classic on writing and the diary as literary form this is an essential book for anyone interested in the evolution of creative life Women and Aging Jo Alexander, 1986 First and best anthology to address ageism from a feminist As We Are Now May Sarton, 2014-07-22 Bestselling author May Sarton has never been better than she is in perspective this beautiful harrowing novel about being old unwanted yet refusing to give up The Boston Globe After seventy six year old Caro Spencer suffers a heart attack her family sends her to a private retirement home to wait out the rest of her days Her memory growing fuzzy Caro decides to keep a journal to document the daily goings on her feelings of confinement and boredom her distrust of the home s owner Harriet Hatfield and her daughter Rose her pity for the more incapacitated residents her resentment of her brother John for leaving her alone The journal entries describe not only her frustrations but also small moments of beauty found in a welcome visit from her minister or in watching a bird in the garden But as she writes Caro grows increasingly sensitive to the casual atrocities of retirement home life Even as she acknowledges her mind is beginning to fail she is determined to fight back against the injustices foisted upon the home s occupants This ebook features an extended biography of May Sarton
