Maigret Tend Un Piège:

Maigret Tend Un Piège. Roman Georges Simenon, 1965 Maigret Tend Un Piège. Maigret Sets a Trap. Translated ... by Daphne Woodward Georges Simenon, Daphne Woodward, 1965 Maigret's World Murielle Wenger, Stephen Trussel, 2017-09-13 Georges Simenon's 75 novels and 28 short stories that feature Chief Inspector Jules Maigret provide us with a great deal of information about the French police detective but only in small episodic doses. As readers become acquainted with Maigret one detail at a time he slowly takes on a flesh and bone realism not merely a character in a story but someone we would like to meet in real life. This book presents all the canonical facts and details about the detective and his world in one place presented with tabulations and analyses that enable a better understanding of the works and of Maigret himself.

Investigating Simenon Russell Campbell, 2022-10-04 For nearly a century the work of Belgian crime writer and psychological novelist Georges Simenon creator of Chief Inspector Maigret has captivated readers worldwide. This investigation situates Simenon's work in its historical context and interprets it as a reaction to shifting gender relations in Western society. Simenon's compelling narratives capture the anxieties of men whose patriarchal position was under threat in an era of insurgent feminist movements. These concerns are also evident in Simenon's pervasive preoccupation with sexuality as well as his political stance that stems from his petit bourgeois upbringing. This groundbreaking study includes interwoven commentary on all 191 novels Simenon published under his own name including several that have never been translated into English as well as a number of short stories and several pseudonymous works.

Screenwriters in French cinema Sarah Leahy, Isabelle Vanderschelden, 2021-03-16 Screenwriters have been central figures in French cinema since the conversion to sound from early French language talkies for the domestic market to lavish literary adaptations of the notorious quality tradition of the 1950s and from the aesthetic revolution of the New Wave to the contemporary popular and auteur film in the 2000s. The first English language study to address screenwriters in French cinema this volume will be of particular interest to scholars and students of French film and screenwriting. Taking a diachronic approach it includes case studies drawn from the early sound period to the present day in order to offer an alternative historiography of French cinema shed light on these overlooked figures and revisit the vexed investigates this paradox focusing on the notion at its heart seriality He considers the aesthetics of the repetition of nastiness and how this relates to the perceptions and anxieties that images of serial killing highlight in the societies that produce them Shifting the focus away from the US which is often seen as the home of the serial killer Lethal Repetition instead examines serial killing in European culture and cinema ranging from Scandinavia to the Mediterranean and from Britain to Romania Spanning all brows of cinema including avant garde art mainstream and trash Dyer provides case studies on Jack the Ripper the equation of Nazism with serial killing and the Italian giallo film to explore what this marginal and uncommon crime is being made to mean on European screens

Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir's presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon
