The House on Lonely Street Lyn Andrews, 2010-03-04 Her father's murder drives a young woman to seek refuge in Liverpool but she could now be in even greater danger Lyn Andrews The House on Lonely Street is a powerful and nostalgic saga set in Dublin and Liverpool of the power of love friendship and fear Perfect for fans of Dilly Court and Kitty Neale For Katherine Donovan the slums of Dublin are a lonely place Her father a pawnbroker is the most hated man in the district and Katherine an outcast Her only friend is tiny Ceppi Healy underfed irrepressible and the youngest in a neglected family of eight as much an emotional orphan as eighteen year old Katherine Then one night the unthinkable happens Katherine's father is murdered a victim of local revenge for an act of cruelty even she couldn't have anticipated Fearing for her life Katherine flees taking with her the desperate young Ceppi Liverpool is her longed for haven and with the last of her father's money she rents a lodging house in a street decimated by the sinking of the Titanic But far from finding a refuge for herself and the little girl she promised to protect she realises she has put them into the path of terrible danger What readers are saying about The House on Lonely Street I read this book in less than a day The characters were so believable and you could imagine the struggle but from the start you wanted Katherine to succeed As usual Lyn Andrews tells a really good story She makes you care about the characters and the only criticism I have is that I was left wanting more The brilliant plot will sweep you away to its majestic and tear jerking ending
