Mail Art Collection:

Mail Art Collection Sarah Jackson, 1982 Brain in the Mail, 1980 Small Scale Subversion: Mail Art & Artistamps John Held Jr., 2015 Although increasingly appreciated in fine art and stamp collecting circles artist postage stamps or artistamps are more likely to be traded between the people who create them than they are to be exhibited in commercial art galleries or read about in philatelic journals Artistamps are part and parcel of the grassroots network known as Mail Art an alternative art of creative long distance communication that intuited the demand for cross cultural exchange long before the Internet Although seemingly rigid the postage stamp format allows flexible approaches in painting watercolor offset photography photocopy rubber stamping engraving digitization and sculpture Collection Thinking Jason Camlot, Martha Langford, Linda M. Morra, 2022-09-07 Collection Thinking is a volume of essays that thinks across and beyond critical frameworks from library archival and museum studies to understand the meaning of collection as an entity and as an act It offers new models for understanding how collections have been imagined and defined assembled created and used as cultural phenomena Featuring over 70 illustrations and 21 original chapters that explore cases from a wide range of fields including library and archival studies literary studies art history media studies sound studies folklore studies game studies and education Collection Thinking builds on the important scholarly works produced on the topic of the archive over the past two decades and contributes to ongoing debates on the historical status of memory institutions The volume illustrates how the concept of collection bridges these institutional and structural categories and generates discussions of cultural activities involving artifactual arrangement preservation curation and circulation in both the private and the public spheres Edited and introduced collaboratively by three senior scholars with expertise in the fields of literature art history archives and museums Collection Thinking is designed to stimulate interdisciplinary reflection and conversation This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners interested in how we organize materials for research across disciplines of the humanities and social sciences With case studies that range from collecting Barbie dolls to medieval embroideries and with contributions from practitioners on record collecting the creation of sub culture archives and collection as artistic practice this volume will appeal to anyone who has ever wondered about why and how collections are made Email and the Everyday Esther Milne, 2024-07-02 An exploration of how email is experienced understood and materially structured as a practice spanning our everyday domestic and work lives Despite its many obituaries email is not dead As a global mode of business and personal communication email outstrips newer technologies of online interaction it is deeply embedded in our everyday lives And yet perhaps because the ubiquity of email has obscured its study this is the first scholarly book devoted to email as a key historical social and commercial site of digital communication in our everyday lives In Email and the Everyday Esther Milne examines how email is experienced understood and materially structured as a practice spanning the domestic and institutional spaces of daily life Email experiences range from the routine and banal to the surprising and shocking Drawing on interviews and online surveys Milne focuses on both the material and the symbolic properties of email She maps the development of email as a technology and as an industry considers institutional uses of email including bureaucratic intensity of workplace email and the continuing vibrancy of email groups and examines what happens when private emails end up in public archives discussing the Enron email dataset and Hillary Clinton's infamous private server Finally Milne explores the creative possibilities of email connecting eighteenth century epistolary novels to contemporary email novels discussing the vernacular expression of ASCII art and mail art and examining email works by Carl Steadman Miranda July and others

The Aesthetics of Scientific Data Representation Lotte Philipsen, Rikke Schmidt Kjærgaard, 2017-08-22 How can cartoon images aid in understanding bacterial biological processes What prompts physicists to blur their images before showing them to biologists Considering that the astronomer's data consists solely of invisible electric impulses what is the difference between representing outer space as images graphs or sound How does a work of contemporary art differ from a scientific image if we cannot visually distinguish between the two How do aesthetics art and design influence scientific visualization and vice versa This volume asks critically important questions about scientific data representation and provides significant insights to a field that is interdisciplinary in its very core The authors investigate scientific data representation through the joint optics of the humanities and natural sciences The volume particularly appeals to scholars in visual and aesthetic studies data visualization scientific illustration experience culture information design and science communication Good Mail Day

Jennie Hinchcliff, Carolee Gilligan Wheeler, 2009-09-01 What is a good mail day A good mail day is a day when instead of just bills catalogs and advertisements your postal carrier delivers artful beautiful personal mail from friends and acquaintances all over the world Mail art is a collaborative art form with a long and fascinating history populated by famous artists as well as everyday practitioners The term mail art refers to pieces of art sent through the mail rather than displayed or sold in traditional venues Mail artists often use inexpensive and recycled materials including postcards collage rubber stamps and photocopied images Mail art is a truly international activity and a fun way to connect with people in every corner of the globe Readers will learn to create decorated and illustrated envelopes faux postage and artistamps find penpals make a mail art kit and much more Archiving Advanced Art John Held Jr., 2019-12-24 Collaging Information The Artist the Librarian the Artist Librarian Several years after becoming a professional librarian in 1972 I became involved in Mail Art This international network of cooperating artists has expanded my vision of both the world and the profession Over the years I have taken it upon myself to document various aspects of Mail Art which would have remained unexamined without the involvement of someone both actively participating in the medium and in possession of professional research skills In so doing I have been able to integrate two important facets of my life Women of the Underground: Art Zora von Burden, 2012-11-20 It is not about provocation reaction or even invocation it is about transformation mentally and physically Marina Abramovic artist Art is subjective and if one sees something in an image that projection is a reflection of the spectator who sees what he or she wants to see whose critique is relevant to him or herself exposing his or her own perversions Irina Ionesco artist Until the late twentieth century women s creative skills were relegated to craft and decorative arts and valued only for utilitarian purposes in service to others and the manufacturing of products to benefit society After enduring the great injustice of being denied the freedom that self expression brings through art for the joy of the human spirit Women of the Underground Art celebrates those female cultural innovators who are creating new artwork that pushes boundaries dares to question and redefines the genres of mixed media theater film photography and visual conceptual and performance art In this groundbreaking anthology that will inspire artists and everyone interested in alternatives to mainstream culture as well as serve as a reference book for art historians twenty six female artists describe their ideas beginnings influences and creative techniques Contains interviews with Lady Pink Marina Abramovic Orlan Aleksandra Mir Penny Arcade Johanna Went the Guerrilla Girls and many others Editor Zora von Burden was born and raised in San Francisco California A frequent contributor to The San Francisco Herald von Burden also wrote the screenplay for Geoff Corder s underground cult classic film Hotel Hopscotch ARTPOOL - The Experimental Art Archive of East-Central Europe György Galántai, Julia

Klaniczay, 2013-10-03 This volume is a collection of texts and documents selected from and illustrating the history of Artpool a non profit artist run institution in Budapest established in 1979 by György Galántai and Julia Klaniczay and operating since 1992 under the name of Artpool Art Research Center The book focuses on Artpool s direct antecedents among them the events at György Galántai s Chapel Studio in Balatonboglár 1970-1973 on the foundation development art projects and events as well as the preferences and issues pertaining to art research not independent of the historical and social environment they were conceived in that had formed throughout the course of many years and decades The occasion of the publication of ARTPOOL The Experimental Art Archive of East Central Europe is a milestone in the history of art for its documentation of a remarkable period in the chronicles of conceptual performance installation and video art as well ephemeral mediums such as mail art and artists stamp sheets postcards rubber stamp imprints artists writings and samizdat publications The work represented in the Artpool archive is astonishing in its scope and quantity quality of imagination intellectual force and the courage of the artists who created it This volume presents an opportunity to reflect on the events that brought Artpool into being to acknowledge that while originating in the context of East Central Europe Artpool s community has always been international and to evaluate its broad contributions to world culture and society Kristine Stiles Transregional

Connections in the History of East-Central Europe Katja Castryck-Naumann, 2021-10-25 Transregional connections play a fundamental role in the history of East Central Europe This volume explores this connectivity by showing how people from eastern and central parts of Europe have positioned themselves within global processes while in turn also shaping them The contributions examine different fields of action such as economy arts international regulations and law development aid and migration focusing on the period between the middle of the nineteenth century and the end of the Cold War The authors uncover spaces of interaction and emphasize that internal and external entanglements have established East Central Europe as a distinct region Understanding the connectedness of this subregion is stimulating for the historiography of East Central Europe as it is for the field of global history
