Watching Neighbours Twice a Day... Josh Widdicombe,2021-09-16 A wonderful blend of nostalgia hilarity and personal anecdotes that only Josh Widdicombe could deliver James Acaster If you read only one book by Josh Widdicombe this year make it this one Jack Dee Beautifully written cleverly crafted and charmingly funny Adam Hills This is a book about growing up in the 90s told through the thing that mattered most to me the television programmes I watched For my generation television was the one thing that united everyone There were kids at my school who liked bands kids who liked football and one weird kid who liked the French sport of petanque however we all loved Gladiators Neighbours and Pebble Mill with Alan Titchmarsh possibly not the third of these In his first memoir Josh Widdicombe tells the story of a strange rural childhood the kind of childhood he only realised was weird when he left home and started telling people about it From only having four people in his year at school to living in a family home where they didn t just not bother to lock the front door they didn t even have a key Using a different television show of the time as its starting point for each chapter Watching Neighbours Twice a Day is part childhood memoir part comic history of 90s television and culture It will discuss everything from the BBC convincing him that Michael Parkinson had been possessed by a ghost to Josh s belief that Mr Blobby is one of the great comic characters to what it s like being the only vegetarian child west of Bristol It tells the story of the end of an era the last time when watching television was a shared experience for the family and the nation before the internet meant everyone watched different things at different times on different devices headphones on to make absolutely sure no one else could watch it with them

Elis and John Present the Holy Vible Elis James, John Robins, 2018-10-18 The Elis James and John Robins Show has become cult listening and that cult has registered for charitable status published quarterly accounts and been given a full blessing by the Archbishop of Broadcasting It s official Elis and John are a religion and this book is their Holy Vible Have you ever failed to Keep It Session Is your new flatmate a complete coin Have you ever eaten Space Raiders on the toilet and written Grief Is Living in your journal Then this book is for you If not don t worry it won t be long before you re making up games looking at Freddie or facing your own personal farthing gate Our obsessions make us what we are and though you may never have addressed a will to Brian May or cried watching Ronnie O Sullivan make a 147 you ll have done something similar and Elis and John are here to tell you that you re not weird so come on in and taste the vibe Or should I say READ the vibe

The Electronic Eye David Lyon, 2013-04-26 In this book David Lyon analyses the various contexts of surveillance activity and offers a balanced account of the influence electronic information systems have on the social order today

Global Leadership Marshall Goldsmith, Cathy Greenberg, Alastair Robertson, Maya Hu-Chan, 2003-04-28 The follow up to Marshall Goldsmith s 500 000 copy bestseller The Leader of the Future Global Leadership The Next Generation systematically identifies what tomorrow s leaders will need to know do and believe in order to successfully lead the global enterprise of the future Drawing on the results of an extraordinary 2 year Accenture study of emerging business leaders this book shows why the skills of today s global leaders won t be enough and why tomorrow s leaders won t resemble today s Goldsmith and his co authors first identify five new factors of leadership and their implications global thinking appreciation of diversity technological savvy a willingness to partner and an openness to sharing leadership They explain what it will mean to lead in an era where intellectual capital is the dominant source of value how to lead people whose backgrounds and values may be radically dissimilar from yours and why achieving personal self mastery is now a fundamental prerequisite for leading others From the evolution of federated semi autonomous organizational structures to the personal leadership challenges now arising from globalism this book offers unprecedented insights into the new challenges of leadership and what it will take to meet them

Direct Response to the Commission on Race and Ethnic Disparities Report. David Gomadza, 2021-04-08 The biggest Mystery But how come in the 21st century a government or authority or even institutions can be regarded as practising structural or institutional racism with all these rights groups and laws People are saying there is no racism while some are adamant that racism exists because the byproducts are exactly those that result from structural or institutional racist structures So is there something that exists that people can't pinpoint but what is causing all this This is the billion dollar question What are we missing Is there something else that is going on that is creating the same effects that people especially young generations born here are complaining about OK first what is similar to racism or what can yield the same effects as racism
