Information Infrastructure Alain Barbu, Rafael Dominguez, William H. Melody, 2001-01-01 This publication follows up on the 1993 review of the Bank's experience in telecommunications it assesses how their assistance has influenced the development of information infrastructure in developing countries It finds that the recommendations from 1993 have generally been heeded with the adoption of a new private sector led agenda and increasing the share of IFC in total Bank Group funding commitments However the ability to play a global policy leadership role has been hampered by a benign neglect of the sector at both the strategic and country management level IDA's Partnership for Poverty Reduction Catherine Gwin,2002-01-01 During its 40 year history the International Development Association IDA has worked to improve global welfare by allocating resources to growth and poverty reduction programs In 1990 a new framework for IDA s poverty reduction efforts was created which resulted in significant structural change to its programs The focus of the programs became one of labor intensive growth and expanded access to social services and safety nets to improve incomes levels among the poor Additionally the IDA agenda was expanded to include gender the environment and governance as facets of the poverty reduction framework This report evaluates IDA s performance from 1994 through 2000 against the three specific replenishment commitments of the period While finding the performance level only partially satisfactory the review suggests ways to improve the effectiveness of IDA programs replenishment process and its ability to match corporate and country priorities Power for Development Fernando Reyes Manibog,Rafael Dominguez,Stephan Wegner,2003-01-01 This publication evaluates the performance of the World Bank Group WBG during the 1990s in promoting private sector development in the electric power sector in 80 countries Main findings include that where countries showed a commitment to advancing reforms in promoting private sector development and where programmes were properly implemented the expected benefits were delivered However quality of outcomes depended on the objectives pursued and on types of assistance provided with most countries remaining in the early stages of reform Putting Social Development to Work for the Poor ,2005 This publication examines the effectiveness of aid agency projects in relation to social development work which are based on four key concepts of social sectors safety nets inclusion equity and empowerment and social relations The report draws on recent and ongoing OED evaluations supplemented by other data including a portfolio review a literature review individual surveys and a review of country assistance strategies Four main recommendations are made to improve policy outcomes including the need to ensure that stated Bank or policy priorities receive adequate treatment across regions and countries with better strategic planning to address current skills and monitoring and evaluation gaps global prescriptions to local conditions balancing country performance and poverty incidence in allocating its resources and achieving efficiency selectivity seeking to implement a holistic vision of development Bank strategies should acknowledge client needs judicious adaptation to institutional social and political fronts should be pursued and an approach to poor performing countries should be addressed The Drive to Partnership John R. Eriksson, 2001-01-01 Results based conceptual frameworks Stakeholder views and related findings Country context and measuring aid coordination quality
