Maintaining Prosperity In An Ageing Society:

Maintaining Prosperity in an Ageing Society OECD,1998-07-17 Through this multi disciplinary study the OECD points to the need to take action now by implementing a comprehensive and consistent set of policies Maintaining Prosperity in an Ageing Society ,1998 Reforms for an Ageing Society OECD,2000-11-07 This book reviews recent trends reforms and lessons learned in the 29 OECD countries as they relate to ageing Policy Implications of Ageing Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. Employment, Labour and Social Affairs Committee,1999 The Four Lenses of Population Aging Patrik Marier,2021-05-02 With its implications for health care the economy and an assortment of other policy areas population aging is one of the most pressing issues facing governments and society today and confronting its complex reality is becoming increasingly urgent particularly in the age of COVID 19 In The Four Lenses of Population Aging Patrik Marier looks at how Canada s ten provinces are preparing for an aging society Focusing on a wide range of administrative and policy challenges this analysis explores multiple actions from the development of strategic plans to the expansion of long term care capacity To enhance this analysis Marier adopts four lenses the intergenerational the medical the social gerontological and the organizational By comparing the unique insights and contributions of each lens Marier draws attention to the vital lessons and possible solutions to the challenges of an aging society Drawing on over a hundred interviews with senior civil servants and thousands of policy documents The Four Lenses of Population Aging is a significant contribution to public administration provincial politics and comparative public policy literatures and a timely resource for policymakers and general readers seeking an informed perspective on a timely and important issue Advances in Health Economics Anthony Scott,Alan Maynard,Robert Elliott,2005-12-13 It would be difficult to overstate the standing of the authors Many HERU alumni are among the most highly esteemed health economists in the world Steve Morgan University of British Columbia This is a series of essays to mark the 25 anniversary of HERU Existing and former HERU staff write about their special interests and work records This book addresses many current policy issues which exist in the Scottish and English National Health System HERU is one of the leading health economic institutes in the UK Contributors are all distinguished members of the health economics community Covers a wide range of issues that are relevant to the application of health economics now and into the future Aging and Work Masaharu Kumashiro,2002-11-14 Improvements in health care and quality of life in recent years have led to a marked aging of the world s population especially in well developed regions In the near future this problem will spread to developing countries The growing need to promote the health and function of aging workers presents new challenges as well as new opportunities OECD Economic Surveys: United States 1999 OECD,1999-06-21 This 1999 edition of OECD s periodic survey of the US economy includes a special feature on coping with aging Retiring Women Philip Taylor,Elizabeth Brooke,Christopher McLoughlin,2021-02-26 With current policy concerns about shortfalls of labour supply and effects on the social welfare system due to population ageing there is a need to understand the factors that shape women's choices about if when and how to retire. Recent trends indicating the increased workforce participation of women demand new policy responses to the end of careers and retirement transitions to sustain acceptable levels of participation and productivity. This book is innovative in that it will examine constellations of factors that disadvantage or advantage women's career and retirement trajectories against a backdrop of public policy efforts to extend working lives.

Occupational Therapy with Aging Adults Karen Frank Barney, Margaret Perkinson, 2015-12-11. Look no further for the book that provides the information essential for successful practice in the rapidly growing field of gerontological occupational therapy. Occupational Therapy with Aging Adults is a new comprehensive text edited by OT and gerontological experts Karen Frank Barney and Margaret Perkinson that takes a unique interdisciplinary and collaborative approach in covering every major aspect of geriatric gerontological occupational therapy practice. With 30 chapters written by 70 eminent leaders in gerontology and OT, this book covers the entire continuum of care for the aging population along with special considerations for this rapidly growing demographic. This innovative text also covers topical issues spanning the areas of ethical approaches to treatment, nutrition and oral health concerns, pharmacological issues, low vision interventions, assistive technology supports, and more to ensure readers are well versed in every aspect of this key practice area. UNIQUE Intraprofessional and interprofessional approach to intervention emphasizes working holistically and collaboratively in serving older adults. Case examples help you learn to apply new information to actual patient situations. Questions at the end of each chapter can be used for discussion or other learning applications. Chapter on evidence-based practice discusses how to incorporate evidence into the clinical setting. Chapter on ethics provides a deeper understanding of how to address challenging ethical dilemmas. UNIQUE Chapter on the wide range of physiological changes among the aging patient population highlights related occupational performance issues. UNIQUE Chapter on oral health explores the challenges faced by older adults.

The Oxford Handbook of British Politics Matthew Flinders, 2009-07-16. The Oxford Handbook of British Politics provides the most sophisticated and up-to-date analysis of British politics to date. Essential for all those working in the area.

Getting Wise about Getting Old Véronique Billette, Patrik Marier, Anne-Marie Séguin, 2020-10-01. A grey tsunami is sweeping the land, wreaking social and financial havoc in its wake. Sound familiar? This myth about aging along with twenty-eight others is the focus of Getting Wise about Getting Old, which paints a far more accurate and nuanced portrait of old age. In it, experts debunk myths and persistent stereotypes about aging on a broad array of social issues: from retirement seniors are low performance workers to housing, most older adults live in long-term care accommodation, and violence against senior women are not victims of sexual assault to political participation. Seniors are conservative and resistant to change, deconstructing and countering them with the latest findings. The work of two leading research groups in Quebec, the short and accessible chapters of this vitally important book contribute to a better understanding of the social challenges as well as the advantages of an aging society.
