Miles Davis Birth Of The Cool:

The Birth of the Cool of Miles Davis and His Associates Frank Tirro, 2009 Jazz from its origins until World War II was America's hot new music of the 20th century and this music spread like wildfire to Europe and beyond. Shortly after the war ended a calming influence manifested itself in jazz and a new genre emerged with its own soundscape and quickly rose to worldwide popularity and influence. Cool Jazz. This book traces the history of this music to its roots in French Impressionism and European Neo Classicism, describes the key roles played by Bix Beiderbecke, Lester Young, Lennie Tristano, Claude Thornhill, and Dave Brubeck in the development of this genre, and focuses on the major figures associated with a group of landmark recordings and on an ensemble that felicitously came to be known as The Birth of the Cool. The contributions of Miles Davis, Gil Evans, Gerry Mulligan, John Lewis, and John Carisi are considered in detail, and the scores of this music arranged for Davis's nine piece band are analyzed and compared. The influence of this music persists to the present day, and the final chapter of The Birth of the Cool of Miles Davis and His Associates suggests continuities and developments that might still be explored by interested readers. The book is illustrated with photos of musicians and manuscripts, contains many musical examples, and a detailed index. It has both a bibliography and a short discography, and it includes a compact disc that contains many of the key recordings discussed in the text. Publisher description. Miles Davis, 2011. Miles Davis: Birth of the Cool Miles Davis, Miles Davis, 1981. Birth of the Cool Lewis MacAdams, 2012-04-10 Miles Davis and Juliette Greco, Jackson Pollock and Jack Kerouac, Marlon Brando and Bob Dylan, and William Burroughs. What do all these people have in common? Fame, of course, and undeniable talent. But most of all, they were cool. Birth of the Cool is a stunningly illustrated, brilliantly written cultural history of the American avant garde in the 1940s and 1950s, the decades in which cool was born. From intimate interviews with cool icons like poet Allen Ginsberg, bebop saxophonist Jackie McLean, and Living Theatre cofounder Judith Malina, award-winning journalist and poet Lewis MacAdams extracts the essence of cool. Taking us inside the most influential and experimental art movements of the twentieth century, from the Harlem jazz joints where Dizzy Gillespie and Charlie Parker invented bebop to the back room at Max's in Kansas City when Andy Warhol was holding court to backstage at the Newport Folk Festival the night Bob Dylan went electric, from Surrealism to the Black Mountain School to Zen, MacAdams traces the evolution of cool from the very fringes of society to the mainstream. Born of World War II, raised on atomic age paranoia, cast out of the culture by the realities of racism and the insanity of the Cold War, cool is now perversely as conventional as you can get. Allen Ginsberg suited up for Gap ads, Volvo appropriated a phrase from Jack Kerouac's On the Road for its TV commercials. How one became the other is a terrific story, and it is presented here in a gorgeous package rich with the coolest photographs of the black and white era, from Robert Doisneau, Henri Cartier-Bresson, Man Ray, and many others. Drawing a direct line between Lester Young wearing his pork pie hat and his crepe sole shoes staring out his hotel window at Birdland to the author's three-year-old daughter saying cool while watching a Scooby Doo cartoon at the cusp of a
