at Dusk Ian W. Shaw, 2018-06-26 Far away from any World War II battlefield the citizens of Melbourne lived in fear of a serial killer the Brownout Strangler May 1942 Melbourne was torn between fearing Japanese invasion and revelling in the carnival atmosphere brought by the influx of 15 000 cashed up American servicemen But those US forces didn't guarantee safety Not long after their arrival the city would be gripped by panic when the body of a woman was found strangled partially naked and brutally beaten Six days later another woman was found dead and her body told the same horrific story A murderer was stalking the streets As women were warned not to travel alone an intense manhunt ensued Not long after a third woman was murdered American soldier Eddie Leonski was arrested A calculating psychopath he had a twisted fascination with female voices especially when they were singing Acclaimed author Ian W Shaw brings World War II Melbourne to life and takes us into the mind of the Brownout Strangler and a very different kind of terror enthralling makes for a fascinating read Canberra Times on Ian W Shaw's The Rag Tag Fleet Military Training Is Murder Brendan

Kastenberg, 2017-04-15 Major General Enoch Crowder served as the Judge Advocate General of the United States Army from 1911 to 1923 In 1915 Crowder convinced Congress to increase the size of the Judge Advocate General's Office the legal arm of the United States Army from thirteen uniformed attorneys to more than four hundred Crowder's recruitment of some of the nation's leading legal scholars as well as former congressmen and state supreme court judges helped legitimize President Woodrow Wilson's wartime military and legal policies As the United States entered World War I in 1917 the army numbered about 120 000 soldiers The Judge Advocate General's Office was instrumental in extending the military's reach into the everyday lives of citizens to enable the construction of an army of more than four million soldiers by the end of the war Under Crowder's leadership the office was responsible for the creation and administration of the Selective Service Act under which thousands of men were drafted into military service as well as enforcement of the Espionage Act and wartime prohibition In this first published history of the Judge Advocate General's Office between the years of 1914 and 1922 Joshua Kastenberg examines not only courts martial but also the development of the laws of war and the changing nature of civil military relations The Judge Advocate General's Office influenced the legislative and judicial branches of the government to permit unparalleled assertions of power such as control over local policing functions and the economy Judge advocates also altered the nature of laws to recognize a person's diminished mental health as a defense in criminal trials influenced the assertion of US law overseas and affected the evolving nature of the law of war This groundbreaking study will appeal to scholars students and general readers of US history as well as military legal and political historians The J, E, D & P Murders
