OLD TRADITIONS, NEW PRIDE ANNE. SCHRAFF,2001 Old Traditions, New Pride Anne E. Schraff,2001 Tom Long doesn't want to end up like his father and others on the Nez Percé reservation and thinks maybe he should try to assimilate but he is also drawn to a project to reconnect to tradition by bringing back the Appaloosa horses The Human Factor in Changing Africa Melville J. Herskovits,2013-11-05 Focussing on the problems of change and resistance to change that mark the African sub continent this book examines Africa's place in the world from earliest times It considers the nature of its peoples in their prehistoric development the ways in which their cultures were oriented and the ways in which these cultures guided their reactions to European ideas It also assesses the human responses to industrial technological and economic changes and the re discovery by the Africans of African culture Originally published in 1962 Cottages Sir Lawrence Weaver,1926 Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1964 The "Country Life" Book of Cottages Lawrence Weaver,1919

Dialectic of the Chinese Revolution Jiwei Ci,1994 In this progression which the author describes as the unfolding of the hedonistic potential of utopianism Marxism became China's road to capitalism and consumerism Pamphlets on Biology ,1887 Discovering Quacks, Utopias, and Cemeteries Cynthia Williams Resor,2019-06-21 Discovering Quacks Utopias and Cemeteries Modern Lessons from Historical Themes explores two enduring issues our age old pursuit of better lives and how the media impacts our choices In this unique approach to social history each chapter opens with essential questions asking the reader to consider these issues in historical and modern life The histories of fake cures imaginary and real utopias cemeteries tombstones and scrapbooks are explored from ancient times through the transformations caused by the Industrial Revolution into the twentieth century Historical images excerpts from primary source documents and activities adaptable to learners of all ages are included to illustrate the role of historical media Quacks Utopias and Cemeteries the third in the daily life series by Cynthia Resor is an ideal book for history enthusiasts especially social studies teachers education or humanities professors museum educators and anyone wanting to know about the lives of average people in the past Seán 3Riada Tomás Ó Cannain,2003-04-03 Imagine no Chieftains no Planxty or Bothy Band no Moving Hearts or Riverdance This biography of Seán Riada who spearheaded the revival of Irish traditional music and moved it onto the international stage shows it might not have happened without him One of the few significant artists to remain in Ireland after the Second World War he became an influential and intriguing character composer musician raconteur film maker and academic In this wide ranging account of his life his friend and colleague looks behind the mask to reveal the complex personality of a unique individual and paint a vivid picture of an ambivalent talent In his short life Riada encountered a host of personalities and suffered personal professional and financial crises The result is a fund of anecdotes many almost surreal The book concludes with the highly amusing Charles Acton correspondence and the great critic's obituary for Riada Also available An Poc Ar Buile by Seán S They and We Peter I. Rose,2015-11-17 The first edition of They and We appeared shortly after the March on Washington where Martin Luther King Jr gave his memorable I Have a Dream speech It was published just before the Voting Rights Act of 1965 was passed by Congress The book read by tens of thousands has been updated and expanded five times each edition maintaining the original intention of the author to provide grounding in the sociological study of inter group relations examining prejudice discrimination minority status and other core concepts in straightforward jargon free prose as well as tracking social economic political and legal developments The new 7th 50th anniversary edition of They and We continues the tradition depicting recent demographic changes and persisting patterns such as the leapfrog phenomenon where as in the past many African Americans are left behind as newer groups move in up and over It also covers new developments including the rise of Islamophobia in the wake of 9 11 An entirely new chapter compares perspectives in the United States with situations overseas particularly with regard to nativist and nationalist movements and the rise of xenophobia in this society and in many others

The Wearing of the Green Mike Cronin,Daryl Adair,2004-11-23 The full history of St Patrick s day is captured here for the first time in The Wearing of the Green Illustrated with photos the book spans the medieval origins steeped in folklore and myth through its turbulent and troubled times when it acted as fuel for fierce political argument and tells the fascinating story of how the celebration of 17th March was transformed from a stuffy dinner for Ireland s elite to one of the world s most public festivals Looking at more general Irish traditions and Irish communities throughout the world Mike Cronin and Daryl Adair follow the history of this widely celebrated event examining how the day has been exploited both politically and commercially and they explore the shared heritage of the Irish through the development of this unique patriotic holiday Highly informative for students of history cultural studies and sociology and an absolute delight for anyone interested in the fascinating and unique culture of Ireland Pioneer Collections ,1883

The Two Traditions Gerald Thomas,1993 Newfoundland is well known for the strong traditions and folklore of its English speaking inhabitants Until recently however few outside this province realized that there is also a small but vigorous Francophone population situated mainly on the west coast of the island in and around the Port au Port Peninsula The culture and folklore and particularly their storytelling traditions are the focus of the work by noted folklorist and memorial university professor Gerald Thomas Thomas has conducted extensive and exhaustive research on the Port au Port Peninsula for more than twenty years focusing on though not limited to the music and story telling in Franco Newfoundland communities through the study of the repertoire context and lives on three people Mrs Blanche Ozone Mrs Angela Kerfont and Emile Benoit

The Armstrongs Derek James Stewart,2017-07-11 The Armstrongs were the number one Riding family on the Anglo Scots Border during the 16th century They were the most destructive of the Border reivers and can arguably be called Britain s worst ever family The book follows two narratives The first delves into the history of the Armstrongs origins where they lived their society and how they survived across a violent frontier The second narrative is a gazetteer of family biographies A who s who of raiders and marauders based on court cases and criminal trials Tales of ransom murder arson blackmail and theft are explored drawing out the family s story during this unique period China - Yunnan Province Stephen Mansfield,Martin Walters,2007 Located in southwest China Yunnan Province is the centre of a growing focus on ecotourism This guide covers Yunnan s many attractions including the provincial capital of Kunming legendary Yangtze and Mekong rivers Buddhist stupas and Tibetan border monasteries Making Gullah Melissa L. Cooper,2017-03-16 During the 1920s and 1930s anthropologists and folklorists became obsessed with uncovering connections between African Americans and their African roots At the same time popular print media and artistic productions tapped the new appeal of black folk life highlighting African styled voodoo as an essential element of black folk culture A number of researchers converged on one site in particular Sapelo Island Georgia to seek support for their theories about African survivals bringing with them a curious mix of both influences The legacy of that body of research is the area s contemporary identification as a Gullah community This wide ranging history upends a long tradition of scrutinizing the Low Country blacks of Sapelo Island by refocusing the observational lens on those who studied them Cooper uses a wide variety of sources to unmask the connections between the rise of the social sciences the voodoo craze during the interwar years the black studies movement and black land loss and land struggles in coastal black communities in the Low Country What emerges is a fascinating examination of Gullah people s heritage and how it was reimagined and transformed to serve vastly divergent ends over the decades Jane Austen and the French Revolution Warren Roberts,2000-12-01 This book argues that Jane Austin did know of the French Revolution and its effects on the European world even though she never refers to it directly in her writing Report ... to the Secretary of the Interior American Samoa.
