The Encyclopedia of Aging Linda S. Noelker, PhD, Kenneth Rockwood, MD, FRCPC, Richard L. Sprott, Ph.D., 2006-03-17 A COMPREHENSIVE RESOURCE ON GERONTOLOGY AND GERIATRICS Since its inception in 1987 The Encyclopedia of Aging has proven to be the definitive resource for scholars and students across the burgeoning and increasingly interdisciplinary fields of gerontology and geriatrics Like its three esteemed predecessors the fourth edition contains concise readable explorations of hundreds of terms concepts and issues related to the lives of older adults as well as timely coverage of the many new programs and services for the elderly Updated under the distinguished stewardship of editor in chief Richard Schulz to reflect the infusion of new information across the scientific disciplines this new edition brings readers up to the moment significant advances in biology physiology genetics medicine psychology nursing social services sociology economics technology and political science While retaining the format and standard of excellence that marked the first three editions the fourth edition encompasses a wealth of new information from the social and health sciences It contains the most current bibliography of an expanding literature an exhaustive index and extensive cross references This much anticipated update of the field s most authoritative resource will take its place as an indispensable reference for specialists and non specialists across a broad range of disciplines that now comprise the field of aging SPRINGER SERVING THE HEALTHCARE AND HELPING PROFESSIONS FOR MORE THAN 55 YEARS Guardianship of Adults: Achieving Justice, Autonomy, and Safety Mary Joy Quinn,2005 Introduction to guardianship History of guardianship written by Erica F Wood Criteria for guardianship The guardians Alternatives to guardianship Guardianship process Guardian accountability written by Sally Balch Hurme Working with guardianships Working with the guardianship court Looking forward Supporting Legal Capacity in Socio-Legal Context Mary Donnelly,Rosie Harding,Ezgi Tascioglu,2022-03-10 This collection brings together leading international socio legal and medico legal scholars to explore the dilemma of how to support legal capacity in theory and practice Traditionally decisions for persons found to lack capacity are made by others generally without reference to the person and this applies especially to those with cognitive and psycho social disabilities This book examines the difficulties in establishing effective and deliverable supported decision making concluding that approaches to capacity need to be informed by a grounded understanding of how it operates in real life contexts The book focuses on the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD which recognises the equal right to legal capacity of people with disabilities and requires States Parties to provide support for the exercise of this right However 10 years after the CRPD came into force the shift to legal frameworks for supported decision making remains at best only partial With 16 chapters written by contributors from the UK Canada Finland India Ireland Spain Sweden and Turkey the collection takes a comparative and interdisciplinary approach Many of the contributors have been directly involved in law reform processes in their home jurisdictions and thus can combine both academic expertise and practical grounded awareness of the challenges of legal change Aging and Older Adulthood Joan T. Erber,2019-07-31 Reflects the most important theoretical foundations and research directions concerning aging and older adulthood This authoritative volume provides the latest insights into and theoretical interpretation of our understanding of the human aging process Newly updated and revised this edition of the well established student textbook offers relatable scenarios that touch upon real world issues faced by older adults and their families The book explains how research studies attempt to answer questions of both theoretical and practical importance as they relate to aging and older adulthood and it explains the hypotheses and findings of the studies in a manner that is comprehensible to readers of all levels of research experience Aging and Older Adulthood begins by describing the demographic characteristics of the older population and follows with a chapter on theoretical models that apply to the study of adult development and aging as well as approaches commonly taken to conduct research and ethical concerns involved in the study of this group It then offers a series of chapters exploring biological aging sensation perception and attention memory intellectual functioning cognition and real world problem solving personality and coping social interaction and social ties lifestyles and retirement mental health and psychotherapy and death and bereavement The final chapter looks at aging in the future Each chapter includes fully updated research findings as well as new and expanded coverage of concepts and ideas in areas such as neuroscience and diabetes New edition of a highly respected text exploring our contemporary understanding of a broad range of topics related to older adulthood and the psychology of aging Offers thematic treatment of core issues including health sensory perception memory intellect social interactions employment and retirement and mental health Uses a dual lens of two models the selective optimization with compensation model and the ecological model to provide cohesiveness to the presentation of both theoretical and applied material Introduces each chapter with a relevant real world scenario and refers back to it throughout the chapter Includes pedagogical feature boxes that reflect current understanding of contemporary issues in the field as well as key points and issues for further discussion Aging and Older Adulthood 4th Edition is an excellent text for upper division undergraduate and graduate courses focusing on the older adulthood and aging the psychology of aging gerontological studies and lifespan development Forensic Science and Law Cyril H.
