Blomberg,2017-07-12 The purpose of American Penology is to provide a story of punishment s past present and likely future The story begins in the 1600s in the setting of colonial America and ends in the present As the story evolves through various historical and contemporary settings America s efforts to understand and control crime unfold The context ideas practices and consequences of various reforms in the ways crime is punished are described and examined Though the book s broader scope and purpose can be distinguished from prior efforts it necessarily incorporates many contributions from this rich literature While this enlarged second edition incorporates select descriptions and contingencies in relation to particular eras and punishment ideas and practices it does not limit itself to individual histories of these eras Instead it uses history to frame and help explain particular punishment ideas and practices in relation to the period and context from which they evolved The authors focus upon selected demographic economic political religious and intellectual contingencies that are associated with historical and contemporary eras to show how these contingencies shaped America s punishment ideals and practices In offering a new understanding of received notions of crime control in this edition Blomberg and Lucken not only provide insights into the future of punishment but also show how the larger culture of control extends beyond the field of criminology to have an impact on declining levels of democracy freedom and privacy Annual Program Plan for Fiscal Year ... National Institute of Corrections (U.S.),1990

Rehabilitation Issues, Problems, and Prospects in Boot Camp Brent Benda,Nathaniel J. Pallone,2013-04-03 Boot camps what are their effects on criminal behavior Public and political support for boot camps as alternative correctional facilities has rarely faltered since their inception decades ago though their efficacy remains uncertain Rehabilitation Issues Problems and Prospects in Boot Camp explores all facets of the controversial issue from the attitudes and perceptions of the public to the political motivations in maintaining them on to the latest research on the camps and their graduates Respected authorities discuss boot camps effectiveness on diverse groups according to age gender race and correctional facility Cost factors between boot camps and other correctional institutions are compared along with the latest criminal recidivism data Boot camps provide inmates with an uncomfortable paramilitary style environment with an eye toward shorter incarceration time lower costs and more positive effects on criminal behavior Does this correctional model work as anticipated

Rehabilitation Issues Problems and Prospects in Boot Camp gives you the facts revealing the public and political arguments for and against boot camps as well as the research on the theoretical predictors of criminal recidivism and the differing attitudes of attendees toward the facilities according to gender and race Critical policy issues are identified and discussed in depth with particular emphasis given to the positive and negative aspects of rehabilitation possibilities of boot camps Helpful tables clearly illustrate statistics while extensive references provide opportunities for further insight Rehabilitation Issues Problems and Prospects in Boot Camp explores questions such as criminal recidivism what are the theoretical predictors what effect does gender have on criminal recidivism what is the effect of this hypermasculine paramilitary prison environment have on males and females what are the differences between Native American and non Native American perceptions of boot camp is the perceived severity of boot camp different for gender what is the process for policymaking in creating and maintaining boot camps what role does politics play in the continuation of boot camps what corrections to boot camp facilities should be made based upon evidence and research Rehabilitation Issues Problems and Prospects in Boot Camp is a thorough examination of the social and political issues about boot camps that makes essential reading for educators students sociologists criminologists psychologists counselors and criminal justice professionals

Religion, the Community, and the Rehabilitation of Criminal Offenders Thomas P O'Connor, 2013-01-11 Explore the relationship between faith based programs religion and offender rehabilitation This book reports on current research from several disciplines to help the reader understand the nature and impact of the relationship between faith based programs religion and offender rehabilitation Religion the Community and the Rehabilitation of Criminal Offenders is a unique resource there has been very little research published on this important topic President Bush s faith based initiative recognized that religion plays a role in the justice system and corrections that is overlooked but essential it increases the role of community and caring in the system in a unique and important way This pathbreaking book points the way toward a system of faith based programs that are not only effective but also economical as these programs are often staffed by volunteers Religion the Community and the Rehabilitation of Criminal Offenders addresses important questions regarding the importance and effectiveness of faith based rehabilitation programs including What is the relationship between prison religion and offender rehabilitation What motivates inmates to become involved with religious programs and activities What is the prison chaplain s role in rehabilitation Are certain religious denominations more effective than others in preventing crime delinquency and recidivism How does religious activity help inmates adjust to the prison environment What do inmates have to say about the religious programs they encounter within the system How did Islam develop within American correctional institutions and what changes has the movement gone through in recent years Why do female African American inmates tend to resist conversion to Islam while their male counterparts embrace the Muslim faith in increasing numbers How can sacred texts and social theory be utilized as teaching tools and intervention strategies in the transformation processes of men incarcerated for violent crimes A fascinating study from the Sing Sing prison and more Federal Probation ,1994 Past, Present And Future Of Psychiatry - Ix World Congress Of Psychiatry (In 2 Volumes) Allan Beigel,Jorge Alberto Costa E Silva,Juan J Lopez-ibor Jr,1994-09-27 This volume presents the highlights of the IX World Congress of Psychiatry The congress was a major event with the participation of over 6000 scientists from all over the world with the scientific program covering all aspects of contemporary psychiatry The 200 papers selected for this volume provide an insight into recent advances in psychiatry They discuss a wide spectrum of subjects ranging from the diagnosis and treatment of mental illnesses to critical issues affecting the future of mental health care throughout the world Authors include leading psychiatric clinicians and researchers throughout the world as well as international mental health policy makers The Sex Offender: Current treatment modalities and systems issues Barbara K. Schwartz, Henry R. Cellini, 1995 The Older Prisoner Diete Humblet, 2021-01-23 This book critically explores the world of older prisoners to provide a more nuanced understanding of imprisonment at old age Through an ethnographical study of male and female older prisoners in two Belgian prison settings one in which older prisoners are integrated and one in which they are segregated it informs debates and seeks to recognise ageist discourse attitudes practices in prison The Older Prisoner seeks to situate the older prisoner from both a penological and gerontological perspective organised around the following broad themes the construction of the older prisoner the physical prison world the social prison world surviving prison and giving meaning The book allows readers to navigate between contrasting perspectives and voices rather than reinforcing traditional narratives and prevailing discourses on the older prisoner In doing so it hopes to open up a broader dialogue on ageing and punishment It also offers insights into the concept of meaning in life as an analytical tool to study prisoners Environmental Psychology Tony Cassidy, 2013-10-31 This text contains an up to date survey of theory research and practice in environmental psychology drawing on international literature It adopts the perspective that physical and social factors are inextricably linked in their influence on human behaviour and experience and that the world in which we live is changed and often damaged by human action Throughout the text the issues which are important in contemporary psychology such as levels of explanation methodological diversity and the relationship between psychology and other disciplines are brought to the fore The text covers established areas of environmental concern and also brings together research on rarely covered topics such as the effects of smell colour and light and the way in which physical environments influence social identity Treating Substance Abusers in Correctional Contexts Nathaniel J. Pallone, 2003 The papers in this collection present an overview of new and emerging models for treatment of drug involved offenders They explore types of treatment that operate under the surveillance of courts and the criminal justice system from in prison programs to residential substance abuse treatment RSAT and substance abuse treatment SAT programs in the community Topics covered include outcome assessments event history analysis relapse prevention rehabilitation diversion and therapeutic justice Ageing, Crime and Society Azrini Wahidin, Maureen Cain, 2013-05-13 The relationship between ageing and crime has been a much neglected issue the focus rather being on youth This book aims to redress this imbalance bringing together a group of leading authorities to address key issues on the subject of crime and ageing considering older people as both victims and perpetrators of crime and looking too at conditions faced by older prisoners The book draws upon both criminology and gerontology as well as sociology and social policy to help understand the complex relationship between ageing and the criminal justice system and argues that the needs of elders must be far more firmly on the penal policy agenda than is the case currently Ageing Crime and Society will be concerned with unsilencing a group who because of their age and status have been muted by the criminal justice system Trends in History , 1990
