Oleander Jacaranda:

Oleander, Jacaranda Penelope Lively, 1995-03-31 A poignant and bittersweet memoir from the distinguished British fiction writer Penelope Lively Oleander Jacaranda evokes the author's unusual childhood growing up English in Egypt during the 1930s and 1940s Filled with the birds animals and planets of the Nile landscape that the author knew as a child Oleander Jacaranda follows the young Penelope from a visit to a fellahien village to an afternoon at the elegant Gezira Sporting Club one milieu as exotic to her as the other Lively's memoir offers us the rare opportunity to accompany a gifted writer on a journey of exploration into the mysterious world of her own childhood

Delivering the Framework for Teaching English Michael Ross, Keith West, 2002 Responding to the demands of the Framework for Teaching English Years 7-9 within the context of the revised National Curriculum the Level Best series offers a carefully structured and motivating approach to English for Key Stage 3

Life Writing and the End of Empire Emma Parker, 2024-03-21 The dismantlement of the British Empire had a profound impact on many celebrated white Anglophone writers of the twentieth century particularly those who were raised in former British colonial territories and returned to the metropole after the Second World War Formal decolonisation meant that these authors were unable to go home to their colonial childhoods a historical juncture with profound consequences for how they wrote and recorded their own lives Moving beyond previous discussions of imperial and colonial nostalgia Life Writing and the End of Empire is the first critical study of white memoirists and autobiographers who rewrote their memories of empire across numerous life narratives By focussing on these processual homecomings Emma Parker's study asks what it means to be at home in memories of empire whether in the settler farms of Southern Rhodesia or amidst the neon lights of Shanghai's International Settlement These discussions trace the legacies of empire to the habitations and detritus of everyday life from mansions and modest railway huts to empty swimming pools heirlooms and photograph albums Exploring works by Penelope Lively J G Ballard Doris Lessing and Janet Frame this study establishes new connections between authors usually discussed for their fiction and who have been hitherto unrecognised as post imperial life writers Offering close sustained analysis of autobiographies memoirs travel narratives and autofictions and identifying new subgenres such as speculative life writing this book advances rich new readings of autobiographical narrative By tracing the continuing importance of colonialism to white subjectivity the role of imperial memory in Britain and the ways that these unsettling forces move beneath the surface of modern and contemporary literature this study offers new conceptual insights to the fields of life writing and postcolonial studies

The New Penguin Dictionary of Modern Quotations Robert Andrews, 2003-10-30 The New Penguin Dictionary of Modern Quotations contains over 8 000 quotations from 1914 to the present As much a companion to the modern age as it is an entertaining and useful reference tool it takes the reader on a tour of the wit and wisdom of the great and the good from Margot Asquith to Monica Lewinsky from George V to Boutros Boutros Galli and Jonathan Aitken to Frank Zappa

Projections of Paradise, 2011-01-01 Paradise is commonly imagined as a place of departure or arrival beginning and closure permanent inhabitation of which however much desired is illusory This makes it the dream of the traveller the explorer the migrant hence a trope recurrent in postcolonial writing which is so centrally concerned with questions of displacement and belonging Projections of Paradise documents this concern and demonstrates the indebtedness of writers as diverse as Salman Rushdie Agha Shahid Ali Cyril Dabydeen Bernardine Evaristo Amitav Ghosh James Goonewardene Romesh Gunsekera Abdulrazak Gurnah Janette Turner Hospital Penelope Lively Fatima Mernissi Michael Ondaatje Shyam Selvadurai M G Vassanji and Rudy Wiebe to strikingly similar myths of fulfilment In writing directly or indirectly about the experience of migration all project paradises as places of origin or destination as homes left or not yet found as objects of nostalgic recollection or hopeful anticipation Yet in locating such places quite specifically in Egypt Zanzibar Kashmir Sri Lanka the Sundarbans Canada the Caribbean Queensland Morocco Tuscany Russia the Arctic the USA and England they also subvert received fantasies of paradise as a pleasurable land rich with natural beauty Projections of Paradise explores what happens to these fantasies and what remains of them as postcolonial writings call them into question and expose the often hellish realities from which popular dreams of ideal elsewhere are commonly meant to provide an escape Contributors Vera Alexander Gerd Bayer Derek Coyle Geetha Ganapathy Dor Evelyne Hanquart Turner Ursula Kluwick Janne Korkka Marta Mamet Michalkiewicz Sofia Mu oz Valdieso Susanne Pichler Helga Ramsey Kurz Ulla Ratheiser Petra Tournay Thedotou

How Our Lives Become Stories Paul John Eakin, 2019-06-30 The popularity of such books as Frank McCourt's Angela's Ashes Mary Karr's The Liars Club and Kathryn Harrison's controversial The Kiss has led columnists to call ours the age of memoir And while some critics have derided the explosion of memoir as exhibitionistic and self aggrandizing literary theorists are now beginning to look seriously at this profusion of autobiographical literature Informed by literary scientific and experiential concerns How Our Lives Become Stories enhances knowledge of the complex forces that shape identity and confronts the equally complex problems that arise when we write about who we think we are Using life writings as examples including works by Christa Wolf Art Spiegelman Oliver Sacks Henry Louis Gates Melanie Thernstrom and Philip Roth Paul John Eakin draws on the latest research in neurology cognitive science memory studies developmental psychology and related fields to rethink the very nature of self representation After showing how the experience of living in one's body shapes one's identity he explores relational and narrative modes of being emphasizing social sources of identity and demonstrating that the self and the story of the self are constantly evolving in relation to others Eakin concludes by engaging the ethical issues raised by the conflict between the authorial impulse to life writing and a traditional privacy based ethics that such writings often violate the present day are examined in a wide ranging context of Australian literary and publishing history British Fiction and the Cold War A. Hammond, 2013-09-19 This book offers a unique analysis of the wide ranging responses of British novelists to the East West conflict Hammond analyses the treatment of such geopolitical currents as communism nuclearism clandestinity decolonisation and US superpowerdom and explores the literary forms which writers developed to capture the complexities of the age History in the Early Years Hilary Cooper, 2013-12-16 History in the Early Years is an innovative and accessible guide to helping young children explore the past through their environment family history and story This fully revised edition includes guidance on introducing children to the past at the Foundation Stage in school and pre school settings Throughout it shows how the requirements of the early years curriculum can be met in innovative ways and is fully illustrated by case study examples of children s learning and also supported by recent research The book will support both new and experienced early years practitioners in developing young children s sense of identity through history It encourages practitioners to ensure that history is a significant dimension of early years education and will be essential reading for all teachers in the early and primary years The Gender/sexuality Reader Roger N. Lancaster, Micaela Di Leonardo, 1997 Textbook on gender The Perfume Garden Kate Lord Brown, 2015-04-07 An acclaimed international bestseller The Perfume Garden is a sensuously written story of lost love family secrets and the art of creating a perfect scent High in the hills of Valencia a forgotten house guards its secrets Untouched since Franco s forces tore through Spain in 1936 the whitewashed walls have crumbled and the garden laden with orange blossom grows wild Emma Temple is the first to unlock its doors in seventy years Emma is London s leading perfumier but her blessed life has taken a difficult turn Her free spirited mother Liberty who taught her the art of fragrance making has just passed away At the same time she broke up with her long time lover and business partner Joe whose baby she happens to be carrying While Joe is in New York trying to sell his majority share in their company Emma guided by a series of letters and a key bequeathed to her in Liberty s will decides to leave her job and travel to Valencia where she will give birth in the house her mother mysteriously purchased just before her death The villa is a perfect retreat redolent with the exotic scents of orange blossom and neroli dappled with light and with the rich colors of a forgotten time Emma makes it her mission to restore the place to its former glory But for her aging grandmother Freya a British nurse who stayed in Valencia during Spain s devastating civil war Emma s new home evokes memories of a terrible secret a part of her family s past that until now has managed to stay hidden With two beautifully interwoven narratives and a lush atmospheric setting Kate Lord Brown s The Perfume Garden is a dramatic emotional debut that readers won t soon forget The Intimate Empire Gillian Whitlock, 2000-02-01 By means of contextualized readings this work argues that autobiographic writing allows an intimate access to processes of colonization and decolonization incorporation and resistance and the formation and reformation of identities which occurs in postcolonial space The book explores the interconnections between race gender autobiography and colonialism and uses a method of reading which looks for connections between very different autobiographical writings to pursue constructions of blackness and whiteness femininity and masculinity and nationality Unlike previous studies of autobiography which focus on a limited Euro American canon the book brings together contemporary and 19th century women s autobiographies and travel writing from Canada the Caribbean Kenya South Africa Australia and New Zealand With emphasis on the reader of autobiography as much as the subject it argues that colonization and resistance are deeply embedded in thinking about the self 'A New Type of History' Beverley Southgate,2015-05-22 Linking fiction with history and historical theory A New Type of History Fictional Proposals for dealing with the Past focuses on a selection of nineteenth and twentieth century novelists Tolstoy Proust John Cowper Powys Virginia Woolf Wyndham Lewis Penelope Lively and James Hamilton Paterson who have criticized scientifically based history and proposed alternative ways of approaching the past more subjective and personal colourful and imaginative and above all ethically orientated In this it is argued they have been reverting to an earlier rhetorical model for history which is now being increasingly adopted by practising historians This new type of history may lack the claimed objectivity and truth of its immediate predecessor but it opens the way for an ethically focused subject that may be used in Nietzsche s words for the purpose of life Providing a new take on both novelists and historiography and ranging widely from the nineteenth century to the present day this cross disciplinary study will be valuable reading for all those interested in the intersection and interplay between fiction and history Journal of Commonwealth and Postcolonial Studies ,2001

Bulletin Egypt. Dept. of Agriculture. Technical and Scientific Service,1916 Dancing Fish and Ammonites Penelope Lively,2015-06-23 Sharp unsentimental and ruefully funny A fascinating portrait not only of Lively but of the times through which she has lived Daily Telegraph London Rare personal reflections from one of our most talented writers The New York Times Book Review Booker Prize winner Penelope Lively At age eighty Penelope Lively wrote this powerful and compelling view from old age reporting back on what she found There are meditations on what it is like to be old as well as on how memory shapes us There are intriguing examinations of the key personal as well as historical moments she has lived through and her thoughts on her own bookishness both as reader and writer Lastly she turns to six treasured possessions to speak eloquently about who she is and where she s been fragments of memories from a life well lived Return to Alexandria Beverley Butler,2016-07 Beverley Butler s ethnography of the Bibliotheca Alexandrina project critiques the underlying western foundational concepts and values behind the Library in a nuanced postcolonial examination of memory cultural revival and homecoming Egypt James Whidden,2017-06-26 This book is a comprehensive portrait of the British colony in Egypt which also takes a fresh look at the examples of colonial cultures memorably enshrined in Edward W Said s classic Orientalism Arguing that Said s analysis offered only the dominant discourse in imperial and colonial narratives it uses private papers letters memoirs as well as the official texts histories and government reports to reveal both dominant and muted discourses While imperial sentiment certainly set the standards and sealed the image of a ruling caste culture the investigation of colonial sentiment reveals a more diverse colony in temperament and lifestyles often intimately rooted in the Egyptian setting The method involves providing biographical treatments of a wide range of colonials and the sometimes contradictory responses to specific colonial locations historical junctures and seminal events like invasion and war or grand imperial projects including the Alexandria municipality Listening to Children Alison McLeod, 2008 Listening to Children is essential reading for professionals working with children and young people and will be particularly useful for students in the fields of social care health and education BOOK JACKET
