Stilettos Can Be Murder C.L. Bauer, 2021-04 You're never too old to fall in love or to be framed for murder Gretchen Malloy the fifty something she's not telling elite Kansas City event planner stumbles over a dead groom on his wedding day The police suspect the fashionable Ms Malloy may be a murderer She suspects the police don't appreciate her flair for the dramatic or her good taste for the better things in life One detective knows she's not guilty but he desperately wishes he could charge the woman who gives him a headache anytime she's near In a race to save her business and her life Gretchen becomes an investigator determined to discover who is framing her Surely it isn't her former love who just happens to arrive in town at the same time Her friend launching a political career wouldn't want her in prison would he Would his new wife take some sort of weird revenge on her And would the detective throw her in the clink just because of her big hair and amazing high heels Gretchen Malloy supreme snoop and who usually knows everything about everyone is in the search of her life She's left wondering she may not be the only one in town with killer heels This Exclusive features characters from The Lily List Mysteries a cozy series

The Weather and the Words J.A. Weingarten, 2025-06-17 The Weather and the Words The Selected Letters of John Newlove 1963 2003 gathers hundreds of never before seen letters from the poet John Newlove's archives and sheds light on an author who was to many Canadian writers a literary master Despite his stature during his lifetime Newlove has been largely forgotten and these letters remind readers of what an influential compelling and combative figure he was in Canadian literary history Newlove lived and wrote during a time when Canadian writers were well funded widely read and members of thriving literary communities By the time he died in 2003 that culturally prosperous era had ended Something else had changed too the practice of letter writing began to disappear as email replaced mailed correspondence Telling the story of Newlove's life The Weather and the Words pays tribute not just to this one remarkable poet but also to a remarkable era in Canadian history and the lost art of letter writing the medium through which writers politicians and other public figures fought collaborated conferred and philosophized about art and culture throughout the twentieth century In Newlove's correspondence readers will find a compelling story about the incredible difficulty of establishing a literary career and raising a family while struggling with poverty addiction and mental health issues Through colourful letters Newlove exchanged with Canadian writers such as Margaret Atwood Susan Musgrave Michael Ondaatje Al Purdy and numerous others The Weather and the Words gives readers a ground level view of Newlove's life and era The book includes a foreword by Lorna Crozier an introduction by editor J A Weingarten and an afterword by Laura Cameron
