hard training and sheer courage in the face of horrendous death dealing fire As immortalised in the film Saving Private Ryan this book produced by the American Army Historical Section recounts in superb often brutal detail the struggle on Omaha Beach It is tale never to be forgotten and as the narrative based on the personal interviews with the men and officers of the 1st 2nd and 29th divisions along with the official reports and documents it is as engaging as it is authoritative Omaha Beachhead - 6 June-13 June 1944 - American Forces in Action Series U.S. War Dept. Armies, Corps, Divisions, and Separate Brigades, 1987 Special Bibliographic Series US Army Military History Research Collection, D-Day General Noel F. Mehlo, 2021-05-15 Omaha was the make or break Allied beach on D Day in perhaps the make or break campaign of World War II If American soldiers couldn't gain a foothold there then D Day was unlikely to succeed On June 6 1944 U S troops on Omaha suffered the worst casualties of any of the five Allied invasion beaches so many casualties and so much tactical difficulty that Omaha almost didn't succeed One big reason why Americans gained a foothold on Omaha was Gen Norman Dutch Cota A graduate of the West Point class of 1917 alongside famous classmates Matthew Ridgway Mark Clark and Lightning Joe Collins Norm Cota played football with Dwight Eisenhower who graduated two years earlier From March 1941 to February 1943 Cota served with the famous 1st Infantry Division the Big Red One as division intelligence officer plans training officer and finally chief of staff He performed so well in the North Africa campaign that he was sent to England to help plan D Day After laying the tactical groundwork for the amphibious landings Cota was made assistant division commander of the 29th Infantry Division On the eve of D Day he told his men You're going to find confusion The landing craft aren't going in on schedule and people are going to be landed in the wrong place Some won't be landed at all We must improvise carry on not lose our heads On June 6 1944 under heavy fire Cota landed with the second wave of the 29th Infantry Division on Omaha Beach about an hour after the start of the invasion He personally rallied the survivors of the landings and led the opening of one of the first exits off Omaha Cota seemed to be everywhere that day Coming upon a group of Rangers the general told them Rangers lead the way hence the Rangers motto He is also known for saying Gentlemen we are being killed on the beaches Let us go inland and be killed And to a captain uncertain how to proceed I'll tell you what captain You and your men start shooting at them I'll take a squad of men and you and your men watch carefully I'll show you how to take a house with Germans in it Having demonstrated the task Cota asked the officer Do you understand Do you know how to do it now I won't be around to do it for you again I can't do it for everybody Great quips which American military history will always remember and which show the character in every sense of Dutch Cota Cota was a fighter a fighting general a D Day general and his contribution to D Day will remain his rallying of demoralized troops and his blazing the trail toward the breakout and victory on Omaha Ted Roosevelt Jr who landed at Utah Beach has always received credit as the D Day general like Cota Roosevelt also demanded that he land on D Day and then died of a heart attack a month later but Cota is the hero general of the day having landed early on D Day on bloody Omaha Portrayed by Robert Mitchum in the grand D Day film The Longest Day Cota has not yet received his due and there s a campaign now afoot to award him a belated Medal of Honor His story cries out to be told Now with the cooperation of the Cota family Noel F Mehlo Jr tells the compelling story Dutch Cota on Omaha Beach revealing new information and never before seen photos
