Oman The Modernization Of The Sultanate:

Oman: the Modernization of the Sultanate Calvin H. Allen, Jr, 2016-02-05 Until the 1970s Oman was an isolated almost medieval kingdom virtually unknown to the outside world The 1970 palace coup that brought Sultan Qaboos b Sa'id Al Sa'id to power also brought Oman into the twentieth century Development programmes made modernization a rapid process and Oman's location at the entrance to the Straits of Hormuz gave the country an increasing importance to US security interests in the Gulf region Yet despite modernization Oman remains an unknown land This book first published in 1987 dispels some of the mystery by focusing on the land the people and the history It explores the influences on events of trade foreign involvement in Omani affairs and Ibadism the principal sect of Islam in Oman It also emphasizes the role of the Sultan in contemporary Oman The architect of Oman's new age Qaboos has overseen significant changes in the country's political system and rapid economic growth financed by oil exports Oman Calvin H. Allen, 1987 Oman's Transformation

after 1970 J.E. Peterson, 2024-06-03 Oman's 1970 coup launched a new political and economic structure that was created by and for Sultan Qaboos The initially haphazard construction matured into a durable structure that continues under Sultan Haitham This work details the early construction of the Qabusid state in the 1970s 1980s emphasizing the interplay between personalities and the process of institutionalization The narrative continues to the present demonstrating the resilience of the Qaboosid system Oman's Insurgencies John Peterson, 2014-05-22 Oman today is a rapidly modernizing and peaceful country on the fringes of a region in turmoil It does however have a long history of internal strife In the twentieth century this strife took the form of two internal conflicts The Northern Oman or al Jabal al Akhdar War of the 1950s was a struggle between the forces of the old tribally based Imamate and the newer Sultanate in the northern part of the country In the Dhufar War of the 1960s 70s an anti Sultanate and later Marxist front sought secession in the south J E Peterson takes a detailed look at these two wars in the context of insurgency and counter insurgency warfare He surveys Oman's transition from a strictly traditional regime controlling only parts of the country to a modern inclusive state particularly in terms of security concerns Peterson analyses the development of the Sultanate's successful responses to security challenges especially in the creation and evolution of modern armed forces Oman's Foreign Policy Majid Al-Khalili, 2009-05-19 This is the first book in more than a decade to look systematically at the foundations and practices of Oman's foreign policy and its impact on the production and distribution of oil An expert in the history of the Sultanate of Oman Majid Al Khalili provides new information and a fresh analysis of the lands bordering the Arabian Sea and the Gulf of Oman Beginning with an examination the reign of Sultan Qaboos bin Said as well as the sultanate's geography and how location has influenced its history Oman's Foreign Policy Foundation and Practice analyzes Oman's foreign relations from the early 20th century until the beginning of the 21st century providing the background to recent events Following an analysis of the sultanate's renaissance in the 1970s and 1980s the book considers how Oman's foreign policy changed in the wake of the 1991 Gulf War

It also examines historic power rivalries in the region as well as modern conflicts that now include Iran Iraq and Saudi Arabia The result is a comprehensive understanding of Oman s place in the Middle East and its influence upon the world s changing power structure Changing Rural Systems In Oman Roderic W Dutton,2013-01-11 First Published in 1999 Oman in the decades prior to the 1960s was largely isolated from the rest of the world and its changing economies and societies With a limited education little international links small health systems and government under the then Sultan Said bin Taimur Rural communities in northern Oman had very little contact with the Sultan s government which was based in the southern province of Dhofar In a world in which people in most countries including the Gulf States gained at least some benefit from modern education and health services Omani villagers and pastoralists had recourse only to Koranic schools and traditional healers On the other hand however they retained full responsibility for the management of their rural resources on which they depended for their livelihoods and for life itself and had evolved effective communal systems for their development and conservation These were exemplified by regulations governing the protection of trees and by the work of the committees which controlled the traditional falaj water supply network People worked interdependently responding to the contributions made by other members of the rural communities in a system of mutual self reliance They also lived in harmony with their environment in a manner which time had proven to be truly sustainable This volume looks at the changes that occurred after Sultan Qaboos came to power in 1970 Social and Gender Inequality in Oman Khalid M. Al-Azri,2013 Looking at the social political and legal changes in Oman since 1970 this book challenges the Islamic and tribal traditional cultural norms relating to marriage divorce and women s rights which guide social and legal practice in the modern Omani state The book argues that despite the establishment of legal instruments guaranteeing equality for all citizens the fact that the state depends upon Islamic and tribal elites for its legitimacy invalidates these guarantees in practice Two particular features of the legal and cultural regulation of marriage and marital rights are focused on the perceived requirement for kafa aor equality in marriage between so called high and low socio economic status peoples is examined and the institution of talaq which grants greater rights to men than to women in appeals for divorce This book addresses highly complex subjects with great rigor in terms of empirical research and engagement with theory sociological and political as well as theological and legal It is an interesting investigation of the divisions of authority between the state Islam and tribal norms highlighting barriers to reform in both Oman and wider Islamic society and advocating the removal of such obstacles Governance in the Middle East and North Africa Abbas Kadhimi,2013-02-15 Governance in the Middle East is topic of interest to scholars activists and policy makers The currently proposed book is intended to present the first comprehensive framework of the question of governance in the Middle East in its various forms and manifestations political economic and government performance Gulf in World History Allen James Fromherz,2018-07-31 Analyses of Ranciere s philosophy and its potential for understanding the conversation between contemporary politics and art cinema Regionalizing Oman Steffen Wippel,2013-08-16 This volume addresses the historical structures and current dynamics of Oman's regionalization processes and their political economic and social dimensions. It is based on an interdisciplinary and trans-regional dialogue between scholars from different social sciences and area studies such as political science, economics, management, economic and social geography, history, social anthropology, and linguistics, as well as Middle East, West Asian, Gulf, and African studies, and develops four major axes of research: Oman's integration into global and regional flows of goods, capital, people, and ideas; The multi-scaled political negotiation of such integration or disintegration processes; Consequences of suchlike processes and forms of regionalization for translocal actors; Ideas and strategic communication of regional belonging and the constitution of regions. Each chapter deals with one or more of these issues. Part I deals with concepts of regionalisation and region building and presents different approaches that accentuate certain dimensions of these processes and come from different disciplinary backgrounds. Part II focuses on the translocal, transnational, and trans-regional movement of people, their practices, and imaginations, be they contemporary labour in and out, migrants, returnees from Eastern Africa, or nomadic tribal members. Part III takes a closer look, particularly at economic issues and regionalisation processes that are mainly based on multiple trade links, regional development policies, or politics of regionalism. Part IV analyses political and socio-cultural issues in regional and global perspectives.

Medallions of Transformation - Oman Maria Dekeersmaeker, 2024-04-15 In the Sultanate of Oman, almost dead center of the southern shore of the Arabian Peninsula where the smell of frankincense is omnipresent, I came across a royal medallion which expanded my dimensions and perceptions. This medallion unsuitable for wearing due to its large size forms the basis of stories and portraits about a diverse society in constant transformation. These stories and portraits about changes in form or appearance about internal shifts that align you with yourself and/or of skill areas that need to be examined or changed became in their own way Medallions of Transformation.
