Oman In Early Islamic History:

Oman in Early Islamic History Isam Al-Rawas,2000 This text provides a study of the history of Oman from the advent of Islam until the fall of the second Ibadi Imamate in AH 280 In pulling together historical material it gives an account of Oman s position under the early Islamic community

Early Islamic Oman (ca - 622/280-893) Isam Ali Ahmed al-Rawas,1990 Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006) Josef Meri,2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today s Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today s Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization

Studies in Early Islamic History Martin Hinds,1996 Reprints all nine published articles by British Egyptologist and linguist Hinds 1941 88 except his encyclopedia articles They deal with several important themes including the first Civil War and the social and political tensions underlying it early Islamic historiography conquests relations between Muslims and others and the inquisition during the early Abbasid times Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

An Early Islamic Family from Oman Salamah ibn Muslim 'Awtabi,1991 Arabs in the Early Islamic Empire Brian Ulrich,2019-05-09 Examining a single broad tribal identity al Azd from the immediate pre Islamic period into the early Abbasid era this book notes the ways it was continually refashioned over that time It explores the ways in which the rise of the early Islamic empire influenced the peoples of the Arabian Peninsula who became a core part of it and examines the connections between the kinship societies and the developing state of the early caliphate This helps us to understand how what are often called tribal forms of social organisation identity conditioned its growth and helped shape what became its common elite culture Studying the relationship between tribe and state during the first two centuries of the caliphate author Brian Ulrich s focus is on understanding the survival and transformation of tribal identity until it became part of the literate high culture of the Abbasid caliphate and a component of a larger Arab ethnic identity He argues that from pre Islamic Arabia to the caliphate greater continuity existed between tribal identity and social practice than is generally portrayed

Oman, Culture and Diplomacy Jeremy Jones,2013-03-10 This book is a cultural history offering an historical account of the formation of a distinctive Omani culture arguing that it is in this unique culture that a specific conception and practice of diplomacy has been developed Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright, 2025-10-27

This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre Modern Islamic world These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins vessels and books to major constructions including mosques tombs castles dams and canal systems The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record Object based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period To demonstrate these points each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned made used adapted and exchanged The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects employing perspectives from the fields of art history archaeology numismatics ethnography and epigraphy Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction an extensive glossary a timeline and guide for further reading the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political economic social cultural religious and intellectual histories of the Islamic world

Medieval Islamic Civilization: L-Z, index Josef W. Meri, 2006 Publisher description Oman Reborn Linda Pappas Funsch, 2015-12-29 The Sultanate of Oman is one of the few good news stories to have emerged from the Middle East in recent memory This book traces the narrative of a little known and relatively stable Arab country whose history of independence legacy of interaction with diverse cultures and enlightened modern leadership have transformed it in less than fifty years from an isolated medieval style potentate to a stable dynamic and largely optimistic country At the heart of this fascinating story is Oman s sultan Qaboos bin Sa id friend to both East and West whose unique leadership style has resulted in both domestic and foreign policy achievements during more than four decades in office Exploring Oman from a historical perspective Funsch examines how the country s unique blend of tradition and modernization has enabled it to succeed while others in the region have failed Accounts of the author s own experiences with Oman s transformation add rich layers of depth texture and personality to the narrative A History of Modern Oman Jeremy Jones, Nicholas Ridout, 2015-08-31

The ideal introduction to the history of modern Oman from the eighteenth century to the present this book combines the most recent scholarship on Omani history with insights drawn from a close analysis of the politics and international relations of contemporary Oman Jeremy Jones and Nicholas Ridout offer a distinctive new approach to Omani history building on postcolonial thought and integrating the study of politics and culture The book addresses key topics including Oman s historical cosmopolitanism the distinctive role of Omani Islam in the country s social and political life Oman s role in the global economy of the nineteenth century insurrection and revolution in the twentieth century the role of Sultan Qaboos in the era of oil and Oman's unique regional and diplomatic perspective on contemporary issues New Islamic Dynasties C. E. Bosworth, 2019-06-01 Those coming to the study of Islamic history for the first time face a baffling array of rulers and dynasties in the many different areas of Islam This book provides a comprehensive and reliable reference source for all students of history and culture It lists by name the rulers of all the principal Islamic dynasties with Hijri and Common Era dates Each dynastic list is followed by a brief assessment of its historical significance and by a short bibliography Fully updated and substantially revised and expanded for a modern audience this handbook is based upon Bosworth's renowned The Islamic Dynasties first published in 1967 and revised in 1980 As well as increasing the number of dynasties covered from 82 to 186 innovations in the new edition include much more extensive listings of honorific titles and of filiations allowing genealogical connections within dynasties to be made Key Features Only reliable chronological and genealogical listing available Covers all the areas of the Islamic world including Afghanistan the Arabian peninsula Central Asia East Africa Egypt India Indonesia Iran North Africa Persia South East Asia Spain Syria Turkey and West Africa Includes 186 dynasties Records those rulers who issued coins of great interest to Islamic numismatics Parable and Politics in Early Islamic History Tayeb El-Hibri, 2010-10-19 The story of the succession to the Prophet Muhammad and the rise of the Rashidun Caliphate 632-661 is familiar to historians from the political histories of medieval Islam which treat it as a factual account The story also informs the competing perspectives of Sunni and Shi'i Islam which read into it the legitimacy of their claims Yet while descriptive and varied these approaches have long excluded a third reading which views the conflict over the succession to the Prophet as a parable From this vantage point the motives sayings and actions of the protagonists reveal profound links to previous texts not to mention a surprising irony regarding political and religious issues In a controversial break from previous historiography Tayeb El-Hibri privileges the literary and artistic triumphs of the medieval Islamic chronicles and maps the origins of Islamic political and religious orthodoxy Considering the patterns and themes of these unified narratives including the problem of measuring personal qualification according to religious merit nobility and skills in government El-Hibri offers an insightful critique of both early and contemporary Islam and the concerns of legitimacy shadowing various rulers In building an argument for reading the texts as parabolic commentary he also highlights the Islamic reinterpretation of biblical traditions both by Qur'anic exegesis and historical composition Ancient Water Agreements, Tribal Law and Ibadism Katariina Simonen, 2021-10-19 This book traces the development of Oman's inclusive agreements and highlights their importance for international negotiations dealing with issues most relevant to humanity's own survival today nuclear weapons or climate change In Oman a historical seafaring nation on the south eastern corner of the Arabian Peninsula a culture of agreement that accommodates the interests of everyone has developed around the division of scarce water resources Life in the arid inland of the Omani Hajar mountains would not have been possible without water Irrigation channel falaj construction is extremely old and skilful therein Local practices evolved around the division of water and land on the basis of fairness The community would be best served by inclusion and the avoidance of conflict A specific Islamic school called Ibadi arrived at Oman early on in the eighth century Ibadi scholars conserved local practices Consultation and mediation by sheikhs and the religious leader Imam became the law of the land The Omanis were known as the People of Consultation Ahl Al Shura In time the practice of inclusive agreements would extend far beyond the village level affecting Oman's foreign policy under Sultan Qaboos Oman's water diplomacy succeeded in uniting the contestants of the Middle East Peace Process in the 1990s to work together on common problems of water desalination

The History of Islam in Africa Nehemia Levtzion, Randall L. Pouwels, 2000-03-31 The history of the Islamic faith on the continent of Africa spans fourteen centuries For the first time in a single volume The History of Islam in Africa presents a detailed historic mapping of the cultural political geographic and religious past of this significant presence on a continent wide scale Bringing together two dozen leading scholars this comprehensive work treats the historical development of the religion in each major region and examines its effects Without assuming prior knowledge of the subject on the part of its readers The History of Islam in Africa is broken down into discrete areas each devoted to a particular place or theme and each written by experts in that particular arena The introductory chapters examine the principal gateways from abroad through which Islam traditionally has influenced Africans The following two parts present overviews of Islamic history in West Africa and the Sudanic zone and in subequatorial Africa In the final section the authors discuss important themes that have had an impact on Muslim communities in Africa Designed as both a reference and a text The History of Islam in Africa will be an essential tool for libraries scholars and students of this growing field Contributors Edward A Alpers Ren A Bravmann Abdin Chande Eric Charry Allan Christelow Roberta Ann Dunbar Kenneth W Harrow Lansin Kaba Lidwien Kapteijns Nehemia Levtzion William F S Miles David Owusu Ansah M N Pearson Randall L Pouwels Stefan Reichmuth David Robinson Peter von Sivers Robert C H Shell Jay Spaulding David C Sperling with Jose H Kagabo Jean Louis Triaud Knut S Vik r John O Voll and Ivor Wilks

A Natural History of the Emirates John A. Burt, 2023-10-31 For many people thoughts of the United Arab Emirates conjure images of ultramodern skyscrapers and rolling sand dunes However the Emirates are a rich mosaic of ecosystems and habitats that support surprisingly diverse communities of organisms and there is growing awareness of the importance of these previously underappreciated natural assets A Natural History of the Emirates provides a comprehensive overview of the unusual environmental setting of this young nation and surveys the major ecosystems and the marine and terrestrial organisms occurring across the nation From freshwater streams in the hyperarid Hajar Mountains to the world's most temperature tolerant coral reefs the UAE is home to an astounding variety of uniquely adapted organisms that are providing insights into climate change and how organisms cope with and respond to extreme environmental conditions The book closes with a section on human interactions with this unique environment and proposes initiatives to ensure the protection of these unique natural assets into the future This is an open access book Oman Diana Darke, 2013 Oman is not merely a desert While it has the classic sand seas Wahiba Sands home to the nomadic Bedouin and their camels this sultanate also boasts lush monsoon soaked valleys near Salalah mountain villages surrounded by green terraced fields of fruit trees and rose bushes and the reef fringed Daymaniyat Islands With such a varied wilderness there is huge scope for adventure Tourism has developed over the last few years and there is an increased emphasis on high end visitors with new luxury spas in hotels like The Chedi The Wave and the Four Seasons in Muscat and the new Marriott in Salalah Large international cruise ships now call for a night or two at Muttrah Muscat harbour and at Salalah in the south Eco awareness is on the rise with many bigger hotels using waste water for garden irrigation and eco luxe tents are growing in popularity for desert and mountain adventure tours The first boutique hotels are opening for small scale tourism to the uninhabited historic villages particularly in the mountains where the high altitude gives cooler climates and greener landscapes with village terracing for agriculture Oman is increasingly perceived as a high end cultural destination The new Opera House has opened directly supported by the Sultan with top notch international performers like Placido Domingo New sections in this edition include advice on property buying since Omani law changed to allow expatriates to buy explaining the rules and regulations There is also a detailed overview of language schools teaching Arabic not found in other guides With advice on cultural etiquette basic Arabic phrases and political history as well as full practical information on where to stay and eat and what to see and do this fully updated edition remains the essential guide for travellers looking to discover the real Oman The Islamic World Andrew Rippin, 2013-10-23 The Islamic World is an outstanding guide to Islamic faith and culture in all its geographical and historical diversity Written by a distinguished international team of scholars it elucidates the history philosophy and practice of one of the world's great religious traditions Its grounding in contemporary scholarship makes it an ideal reference source for students and scholars alike Edited by Andrew Rippin a leading scholar of Islam the volume covers the political geographical religious intellectual cultural and social worlds of Islam and offers insight into all aspects of Muslim life including the Qur'an and law philosophy science and technology art literature and film and much else It explores the concept of an Islamic world what makes it distinctive and how uniform is that distinctiveness across Muslim geographical regions and through history The A to Z of the Gulf Arab States Malcolm C. Peck, 2010-04-12 The A to Z of the Gulf Arab States comes at a time when the world's attention is riveted on the Middle East The small states covered in this volume Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar and the United Arab Emirates UAE possess about 20 percent of the world's total oil reserves Beyond the strategic and economic importance conferred upon them by their vast oil reserves the Gulf Arab states are worthy of attention for the inherent interest of their history and culture No area of the world has yielded more revealing and exciting archaeological finds in the past few decades than these states Investigations have brought to light extensive evidence of an important culture as old as Egypt of the Pharaohs or ancient Babylon which was virtually unknown previously except through rare references in the records of other civilizations The A to Z of the Gulf Arab States is a paperback reprint of the Historical Dictionary of the Gulf Arab States This edition covers the history of the five countries through a chronology broken down by country a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places and events of each country Everything from the Abbasids to Zubarah is covered in this essential reference on this increasingly important region of the world International encyclopedia of adolescence Jeffrey Jensen Arnett, 2007 Publisher description
