Corson, 2015-06-24 Excerpt from Our Public Schools Their Teachers Pupils and Patrons The free Public School System of the United States represents the Nation's most serious attempt to make valid the fundamental statement in the Declaration of Independence that all men are created equal and are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights which include life liberty and the pursuit of happiness for the public school is the one place in all the world where there is guaranteed absolute equality of educational opportunity to all where wealth and ancestry in and of themselves count for nothing and where brains and character and industry are certain to win the recognition they merit The chief purpose of the school In the public school the rights of the children are sacredly safeguarded their physical mental and moral life carefully conserved and their liberties made possible and permanent by a training which teaches them to recognize and obey wholesome authority kindly but firmly exercised and to respect the rights of others a training which is absolutely essential to any one who is ever either to pursue or to possess happiness The importance of an institution can be measured by the demands made upon it by its friends who give to it their cordial support By this standard the public school must be recognized as a large factor in the life of the people About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Indoctrination Colin Gunn
