Harrison continued to teach and shape a methodology in feminist social ethics which attracted scores of graduate students both men and women who currently occupy professorships in ethics throughout the United States and elsewhere in the world. Her former students also include pastors in the United States and Europe and around the globe in countries as diverse as Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Kenya, and Korea. Since her retirement, Beverly Harrison has continued to consult with former and current graduate students. In 2004, six of her former students worked with Harrison in publishing a commentary on her methodology, Justice in the Making: Feminist Social Ethics, Westminster John Knox Press. Since 1999, Beverly Harrison has lived in an intentional community in the mountains of western North Carolina where, along with her longtime companion Carter Heyward and several other friends, she continues to work for justice in every venue possible, including active involvement in the Democratic Party and in movements for racial, economic, sexual, and gender justice. She has been particularly devoted to pro-choice work and LGBT justice efforts in the Presbyterian and Episcopal churches and in society at large. Harrison delights in the companionship of several dogs, cats, and horses.

Modern Protestantism and Positive Law
Bradley Shingleton, 2019-10-31. The nature and role of positive law has largely been neglected in recent Protestant theology and social ethics. Modern Protestantism and Positive Law introduces and critically summarizes a tradition in Continental Protestant thought about human law, drawing on writings of Barth, Brunner, Ellul, Thielicke, Wolf, Pannenberg, Huber, and Kreymer, many of which have not been translated into English. The book argues that law is an essential political and social institution within developed societies, one that is normative and dependent on an encompassing vision of justice but that also necessarily reflects the contemporary pluralism of those societies. Modern Protestantism and Positive Law argues that theological and ethical perspectives on positive law developed by Protestant thinkers have a place in reflection on positive law provided they are conceived and expressed in a manner appropriately respectful of the diversity of contemporary opinion regarding the expression of religious perspectives in the public arena.

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01. In this first of three volumes, Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider, longer running tradition than has been thought. The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century, motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism/atheism. It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry, its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience, its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life, and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people. Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time, including William E. Channing, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Horace Bushnell, Henry Ward Beecher, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and Charles Briggs. Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions, its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom.

still a dynamic and important witness to our world      Governance and Ministry Dan Hotchkiss, 2009-04-15 In Governance and Ministry Dan Hotchkiss offers congregational leaders a roadmap and tools for changing the way boards and clergy work together to lead congregations Hotchkiss demonstrates that the right governance model is the one that best enables a congregation to fulfill its mission to achieve both the outward results and the inward quality of life to which it is called Resources on governance for the nonprofit sector have burgeoned over the past decade and this book translates some of what is most helpful from that world for clergy and lay leaders it also recognizes that in some ways congregations are unique and need governance structures and processes different from those that work in other organizations Leaders must continually balance the conserving function of an institution with the expectation of disruptive change inducting creativity that comes when individuals peek past the temple veil and catch fresh visions of the Holy Governance in congregations is not the science of achieving optimal results through organizational re engineering Governance is an expressive art like preaching The forms of our congregations must reflect the values and perceptions of the sacred at their heart Congregations need skills and methods for negotiating our way of governance and for passing the torch effectively to new leaders      Old Catholic and Philippine Independent Ecclesiologies in History Peter-Ben Smit, 2011-08-25 This study researches the historical development of the self understanding of the Old Catholic Churches of the Union of Utrecht and the Iglesia Filipina Independiente Throughout the 20th century both churches have been in a developing relationship with each other resulting in full communion in 1965 In the same time period both churches developed an ecclesiological self understanding in which an ecclesiology of the national church gradually gave way to an ecclesiology of the local church By outlining this development for each of these two churches and comparing the developments the study gives insight both into the individual development of the two churches involved and shows how these developments relate to each other In this way the study presents a new historical portrait of these churches and their self understanding      God and Government Cornelis Van Dam, 2011-12-05 Ours is a time of rapid cultural change with new economic challenges People look to their governments for leadership and solutions But what can and should government do to meet the difficulties that beset a nation What can citizens expect from their elected representatives What is reasonable And what should citizens do What are their responsibilities This book addresses such fundamental issues through the eyes of Scripture and against the backdrop of North America's dual heritage of Christianity and humanism Government politics and the Bible do not seem like a good mix But as this book aims to show the Bible has much wisdom to teach us about the place and role of government and its citizens Biblical principles work because God knows how his world and his servant governments are supposed to function After all he ordained the governing authorities and the principles enunciated in his Word are timeless and remain practical This book introduces fundamental biblical principles that apply to government and politics The intent is to inform and to motivate the reader to get involved where possible in the political processes of the day Our legislators need the input and help from their knowledgeable Christian constituents     After the Good News Nancy McDonald Ladd, 2019-01-15 Progressive faith is at a crossroads Liberal pulpits ring with grand sermons about the arc that bends toward justice and about progress onward and upward forever Meanwhile the people in the pews struggle to attend to the suffering of their souls and the tragic aspects of life In this engaging polemic using stories and metaphor Nancy McDonald Ladd issues a call for change Speaking from a rising generation of clergy and lay leaders who formed their commitments to liberal religion at the end of the optimistic modernist age she shows how the religious life is not characterized by endless human advancement but by lurching movement crisis management and pain With humor and humanity Ladd calls religious progressives to greater authenticity and truth telling rather than blind optimism She charts a course forward that includes reclaiming rituals of atonement and lament and becoming more vulnerable and accountable in our relationships She shows how together we might build a necessary and greater resilience among ourselves and for the generations to come
