Climbing the Corporate Ladder in High Heels Kathleen Archambeau, 2006-04-01 Favoring neither the in your face aggressive tactics of the break through the glass ceiling school of thought nor the sugar and spice is everything nice little girl approach Climbing the Corporate Ladder in High Heels shows women how to be outstanding successful and personally actualized without becoming just like men There are 63 million working women in America but only nine are top company CEOs While women make up nearly 50 percent of the workforce working women perform 90 percent of household and childcare duties Women are left wondering Do I have to make a choice between my career or my life This book answers that question You can have it all just not all at once

Playing With the Boys Eileen McDonagh, Laura Pappano, 2007-10-25 Athletic contests help define what we mean in America by success By keeping women from playing with the boys on the false assumption that they are inherently inferior society relegates them to second class citizens In this forcefully argued book Eileen McDonagh and Laura Pappano show in vivid detail how women have been unfairly excluded from participating in sports on an equal footing with men Using dozens of powerful examples girls and women breaking through in football ice hockey wrestling and baseball to name just a few the authors show that sex differences are not sufficient to warrant exclusion in most sports that success entails more than brute strength and that sex segregation in sports does not simply reflect sex differences but actively constructs and reinforces stereotypes about sex differences For instance women's bodies give them a physiological advantage in endurance sports yet many Olympic events have shorter races for women than men thereby camouflaging rather than revealing women's strengths

Women Entrepreneurs in Small and Medium Enterprises OECD, 1998-04-08 This conference proceedings explores the phenomenon of women entrepreneurs in small and medium enterprises examining such issues as governmental support networks doing business overseas starting businesses and financing
